Mr., Mrs. Gary L. Knox, Wed Aug. 24, at Home in Redondo

Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Knox are now at home in Redondo following a Yosemite honeymoon. Mrs. Knox is the former Miss Sunnle Bell Stallings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stallings, 4736 W. 149th St., Lawndale. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knox, 1204 Teri Ave., are the parents of the bridegroom.

The couple were married in a formal ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Torrance at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 24. Rev. Nathan Barnes officiated.

A background of wedding music and the wedding marches were played by Mrs. Pat Owendijk.

Mr. Stallings walked to the altar with his daughter, and gave her in marriage. She was radiant in her wedding gown of Chantilly lace over nylon tulle. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. A tiara held the illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids encircled by pink elf roses.

Miss Sally Roddewig served as the maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon and carried a basket of white carnations.

Misses Shawnee Dixon and Nancy Chick were the bridesmaids. Miss Dixon was in white and green nylon and carried a basket of white carnations tied with green ribbons and Miss Chick wore white and orchid nylon. Her basket of white blossoms was tied with orchid ribbons.

Jim Smith stood as best man and guests were registered by Mrs. Harry Stallings.

The 150 wedding guests were entertained at a reception at the Ivy House in Inglewood.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are El Camino College graduates.

Wedding Set For Saturday

Miss Rita Ruth Dodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Dodge, 1825 W. 222nd St., will be married Saturday, Sept. 7 at 3 p.m. to Philip Simpson in a ceremony at the Nativity Catholic Church.

The bride-elect was complimentary at a miscellaneous shower last week given by her maid of honor, Miss Jerry Alabashi at her Gardena home. Twenty-five friends of the bride-to-be attended the party.

RETURN HOME

Mrs. W. C. Boswell and daughter, Pamela returned last Sunday night from a three weeks vacation in Kansas City, Mo., where they were guests of Mrs. Boswell's mother and sister.

Prew-Fields Vows Read in Home Service

In a wedding ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kyr-iaikos Eftichiakos, 443 W. 10th St., San Pedro, at 3 p.m. on Aug. 17, their daughter, Nellie Mae Prew became the bride of Dickie Darrel Fields, son of Mrs. Dora Fields, 1620 W. 219th St., Torrance.

Miss Shirley Burdick, wearing pink lace over taffeta and carrying white rosebuds served as the maid of honor. Lora Eftichiakos in a white organdy frock was the flower girl. The bride came to the improvised altar on the arm of her father. She wore a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace over satin. Her full length illusion veil was held by a seed pearl crown and her bouquet was of pink roses.

Charles Field, stood as his brother's best man. The Rev. Charles Little, pastor of the Torrance Church of the Nazarene conducted the marriage ceremony.

Following the wedding a full course dinner was served to the guests.

The bride is a graduate of San Pedro High School and the bridegroom is a Narbonne High graduate.

The couple will make their home in Fontana where the bridegroom is employed.

Among the guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Fields of Fontana.
