Only the Adlermatic embroiders automatically with multiple pattern discs. Just one of these discs does over 50 different embroidery stitches, 100's of variations!

The Adlermatic is actually three sewing machines in one! It's the finest of straight sewers, the most versatile of Zig Zags, and the most advanced automatic! No attachments are needed to do your everyday sewing operations. The Adlermatic is strikingly modern in appearance with straight lines and rounded edges and corners. It comes in both portable, and cabinet models.

Sewing is automatic on the Adlermatic. You just guide the material, the Adlermatic does the sewing for you! Hundreds of plain, fancy and highly decorative stitch variations are at your fingertips. You can even change stitches without stopping the machine. And the automatic operation is "built in," no outward awkward accessories are needed!

Rev. Kuester Will Discuss 'Sanctification' on Sunday

"The Doctrine of Sanctification" will be the topic of the Rev. H. Earl Kuester, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., at the duplicate morning services, 8:30 and 11 a.m.

In the evening at 7:30 he will speak on: "Key Witness to Salvation by Grace," a continuation of "Men Who Met Jesus." Dr. Robert Campbell dean of the American Baptist Theological Seminary at Covina, will begin a series of talks on the Parables of Jesus at the regular Wednesday evening prayer meetings, on Sept. 11. These talks will continue through Oct. 30.

Men at Meeting
Over the weekend of Sept. 13-14 American Baptist Men of Southern California will hold a conference at 1000 Pines Camp near Crestline.

One of the featured speakers will be Dr. Jitsuo Morikawa, secretary of the Department of Evangelism of the American Baptist Convention, with offices in New York City. He has served as pastor of three churches in Los Angeles, at Terminal Island, and in Gardena. He was pastor of the

Dean Sears To Note 30th Banking Year

Dean L. Sears, assistant vice president at Bank of America's Torrance branch, will celebrate his 30th anniversary with the bank next Sunday. Sears became manager of Torrance branch in 1935. Under his guidance the branch has grown from a small office of five employees to the present branch which requires 69 staff members to operate. He was promoted to assistant vice president last July.

Sears joined Bank of America at Bishop in 1927, with five years of banking experience already behind him. Within three weeks of his employment he was sent to Lone Pine to open a new branch there as manager.

Sears was the recipient of the Distinguished Citizen Award in 1955 which was presented to him by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce. Among his civic posts, he is past president of the Torrance Dental Health Assn., the Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce, of which he now is a director. He is also board member and secretary of the Torrance Memorial Hospital and the financial chairman for Harbor District of Boy Scouts of America.

First Baptist Church in Chicago just prior to his appointment to his present position.

Church Honored

During his ministry in Chicago, First Baptist Church was honored for the most outstanding contribution to race relations through its membership of all races and nationalities.

Twenty-two men from Calvary will attend the conference including Rev. Kuester, Bob Miller, Joe Hoffmann, Charlie Rees, Jim McKain, John Holliday, Ray Shockley, Glen Dick, Dave Thomas, Clyde Mitchell, Lee Bayer, Charlie Harrison, Ward Dunagan, Bob Buckler, Martin Posten, Stanley Gray, Burt Clements, Bob King, Yuzy Sato, Ray Biffle, Hank Thomason and Charles Ramsey.

Reception to Honor GOP Groups Today

The 67th District Republican Assembly will host officers and board members of 22 Republican volunteer organizations in the 17th Congressional District at a reception this afternoon between 3 and 6 p.m. at the Club Alondra, 16411 S. Prairie Ave., Lawndale.

Guests of honor, according to President C. Harry Davis, will include Alphonzo E. Bell, state central committee chairman; Robert Finch, L.A. county central committee chairman; Carl E. Lindstrom, L.A. county Republican assembly president; Charles Soderstrom, 17th congressional district chairman; Mayme Thomas and G. Harvey Mydland, vice presidents of the California Republican Assembly.

Employee To Retire

After 16 years with United States Steel, Joseph H. Jordan, district director of public relations of the corporation's Pacific-Southwest District since 1954, will retire Sept. 30, it was announced today by Phelps Adams, executive director of public relations and assistant to the chairman, board of directors.

He will be succeeded by Paul Sullivan, district director of public relations for U. S. Steel in Chicago since 1954, it was simultaneously announced. Jordan, former publisher of the Duluth (Minn.) Herald and News-Tribune, began with U. S. Steel in 1941 as director of public relations of the Oliver Iron Mining Co. in Duluth.

New Lutheran Church Picks Donhowe as 1st President

Howard Donhowe was elected president of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd at its formal organization meeting Tuesday in the Anza Ave. Baptist Church.

Dr. Gaylord Falde, president of the California district of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, conducted the meeting. Present membership of the church is 121, with charter membership to remain open until the first annual meeting in January.

Officers Picked

Adopting its constitution at the organization meeting, the congregation also elected officers to serve until the first annual meeting. Executive officers of the congregation are Donhowe, president; Gordon Nicklasson, vice president; Neil Lewis, secretary; Jack Naisure, treasurer; and Leon Alderman, financial secretary.

Serving on the Board of Trustees, together with the president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, will be John Gross, Harold Townsend, and A. C. Uglum. Members elected to the Board of Deacons include Mrs. A. C. Andreasen, Miss Blanche Michael, Mrs. Ruth L. Peterson, Robert Burmeister, Robert Eng, Stanley Halverson, and James Hovey. Mrs. Margaret Dickson, Mrs. Alfred Jaeger, and Elmer Hendrickson are members of the Board of Parish Education. The Church Council will include all congregational officers and Board members.

Pastor Installed
With the adjournment of the business meeting, the Rev. Gerald W. Garlid was installed as the first pastor of the congregation by Dr. Falde. Rev. Garlid, who came here in January, originally was called by the California district of the Evangelical Lutheran Church to establish a congregation in an area in west Torrance and Redondo Beach assigned by the Regional Home Missions Committee of the National Lutheran Council.

The Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd held its first worship service and Sunday School session on March 24 and is meeting temporarily at the Anza Elementary School. The church office is maintained at the parsonage at 22924 Carlow Rd.

Insurance Company States Convention

Two Torrance representatives of the Provident Life and Accident Insurance Co. have qualified for the company's 1957 Life Producers' Convention in Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 16-19.

They are N. D. Larsen, who heads the Newell D. Larsen Agency here, and W. L. Trent, who represents the agency.

COLOR BLINDNESS

Color blindness is about 20 times more common in men than women.
