

Rotary to Host Kiwanis Tonight

The Rotary Club of Torrance will play host tonight to the Kiwanis Club of Torrance at an annual picnic to be held at Torrance Park. This event has been taking place each September for many years and this year will be attended by over 300 members, wives, and children of the two service clubs.

Adding color to the picnic will be the usual Slo-Pitch softball game played between the two clubs starting at 5:30 p.m. As in the past this game will provide much exercise and many strained muscles for the players plus much hilarity among the spectators.

The meal, following the ball game, will be of the picnic type and has been arranged for by the Rotary Club.

"THE HAPPY TIME" . . . Music lessons are the topic of discussion in this scene from "The Happy Time," Accent Theatre production which opens Friday night at the group's playhouse, El Prado and Cabrillo. Shown are Jo Harestad, as Maman; Ed Siani, as Papa, and Richard French, as Bibi. The play will run on Friday and Saturday nights for four week ends.

'HAPPY TIME,' ACCENT PLAY, TO OPEN FRIDAY

The opening of "The Happy Time," Accent Theatre's next production takes place at 8:30 Friday night at their playhouse on El Prado at Cabrillo.

This fun-loving home life comedy concerns a French-Canadian family and the humorous domestic problems that occur in any active home. It had a tremendously successful Broadway run a few years ago and has been greatly enjoyed by the many little theatre audiences who have had the opportunity of seeing it.

Grey Directing, following his successes with "Stalag 17" and "Light Up The Sky," also presented by Accent Theatre.

Many well-known local people are cast in this production with Jo Harestad, who will be remembered for her role of Karen Andre in "The Night of January 16," playing the lead role of Maman. Her husband is being played by Ed Siani of Inglewood, who recently won the "Best Actor Award" of the year from Palos Verdes Players.

Children always lend a certain spice to a play and two child actors will be seen in "The Happy Time." Richard French is a local boy who plays the part of Bibi. Kerby Gangel of Hermosa Beach, after achieving such success in "The Bad Seed" will be seen as Sally, a neighbor girl enamored with Bibi.

Cast Told
The foxy Grandpere is to be played by Paul Harestad. His stage brothers, Uncle Desmond and Uncle Louis are played respectively by Ed Gangel and Joe Cunningham. Barbara Whitley, a recent Torrance High graduate takes the part of the provocative French maid, Mignonette. The part of Aunt Felice is performed by Nadine Nickol, another local thespian. Ed Cook and Lee Oberholtzer, both who will be remembered from "Stalag 17" appear in the roles of Dr. Gagnon and Alfred.

The drunken Shriner from "Light Up The Sky" and Schultz, the German guard in "Stalag 17" both played by Warren Deiter will again show his qualities for characterization when he is seen as Mr. Frye, the school teacher.

Performances will continue for four week ends, playing both Friday and Saturday nights. Reservations may be made by calling Accent Theatre at the Torrance Playhouse.
