Boy Scout Troop 728
Twenty-three members of Boy Scout Troop 728 attended the dedication of a memorial atop Mt. Baden-Powell, Saturday. One of the highlights of the ceremony was hearing the voice of Sir Baden-Powell on a recording. This memorial to the founder of Scouting was built by more than 2000 Scouts who packed in materials and equipment. Members of this troop carried sacks of cement. Scouts attending were Terry Taylor, David Strayer, Bob Sonju, Randy Smalley, Tom Rodgers, Larry Reintsma, Tom Patrick, Ken Neal, Bob Murphy, John McCarthy, Gordon Hinshaw, Larry Hendrickson, Danny Fulton, Mike Derouin, Pat Derouin, James Donald, David Cooper, Don Christenson, Randy Blair, Willy Baker, Don Baker, Gene Anderson, and Dennis Albright. Mr. Wal-smith and Scoutmaster Herman Hoodman accompanied the boys.

Boy Scout Troop 241
Boy Scout Troop 241, sponsored by the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, wound up one of the most successful programs of Scouting with a court of honor recently to present awards and badges. In an impressive candle-light ceremony led by Skip Wilson and Danny Kirks, Roy McCray received his tender-foot badge making him a full-fledged Scout.

After an active summer of camping, swimming, hiking, and nature study, Steve Simpson, Granville Pool, Mike Moore, Dick Alves, Fred Jansson, Roger Batty, Earl Shanklin, Albert Severson, Robert Bailey, Bob Papkoff, John Alter, Skip Wilson, Danny Kirks and R. C. Williams received badges of advancement and merit badges including camping, wood carving, first aid, hiking, safety, citizenship, cooking, swimming, and nature study.

With such a rapid advancement, several boys will be Eagle Scouts by the end of next summer. Scoutmaster Pool and D. Boone Kirks presented miniature Scout badges to the parents of boys receiving awards. The troop meets each Thursday evening in St. Andrew's parish hall. An invitation is being extended to all boys between the ages of 11 and 14 to visit the troop.
