Mrs. Roy Muncy Given Citation From Redlands

Mrs. Roy Muncy, a member of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, was among those honored with citations at the University of Redlands during the 66th annual meeting of the Southern California Baptist Convention last week.

The award was made for leadership and for Baptist support of the University.

Mrs. Muncy currently is president of the Baptist Women of Southern California and has served as a representative of the State Board of Missionary Promotion and the National Baptist Women's Mission Society.

In the Harbor Assn., Mrs. Muncy has served as president at local, association, and state levels and has held office in the Christian citizenship and love girls units. In the local Tomorrow night Torrance High stages its annual Homecoming festivities with the official crowning of this year's queen, Joyce Cannon, to take place during halftime ceremony.

monies of the Tartar-Mira Costa football game. The 1956 queen, Mary Yoshioka will crown Joyce.

The queen and her four princesses, Betty Baker, Diana Cook, Jan Zuber, and Barbara Balow will reign over the week-long festivities that will be capped Friday night with a Homecoming dance for over 600 THS grads at the Civic Auditorium.

Yesterday the Freshman class elected their officers for this semester and 47 candidates ran for the various offices of the class, league, and student court. A special assembly was held Tuesday in the school cafeteria so that the candidates and the voters could become acquainted. Those running for the offices gave a short speech. Announcements of the winners will be Friday at a school rally, according to ASB vice president Vic Masaki.

Today the Bee football team plays a 2:45 p.m. game with the Mira Costa Bees on the Mustang field. This is the second game of the Bay League season for Coach Howard Brubaker's footballers. Our cross-country teams go for their straight win today on the Tartar's 1.7 mile course against Santa Monica.

Last Friday THS held its annual exchange rally with Redondo. The RCHS pep squad visited our school during second period and our pep team went to Redondo for an afternoon rally on the Seahawk campus. According to Diana Co's. head cheerleader, the rally was a big success at both schools.
