Torrance Eastern Star Chapter Installs in Impressive Service

"Melody of Love" carried out in this year's colors for the Torrance Chapter. Order of Eastern Star, set an impressive scene for the installation of new officers last Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple. Two trillises in the east were covered with pink roses and ivy. On the piano and the secretary's desk were silver manzanita boughs decorated with pink and blue bows.

Pilot Club Members Assist With Community Chest Drive

Pilot Club of Torrance, a business and professional women's service club, helped out with the work at the Community Chest Campaign Headquarters, Monday night, Nov. 25.

The Pilot's Club is one of an international organization. Its basic principles are friendship and service. The club selects and directs its own civic and service projects. Members attend meetings of different civic groups to obtain information on what is going on in the community and become aware of the needs for community service. The club then sponsors projects which will help those in need.

GUILD'S ANNUAL PARTY WEDNESDAY

Ladies' Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet in the guild hall on Wednesday, Dec. 11, at noon for the annual potluck luncheon and Christmas party. Board members will furnish and serve the dessert.

Instead of the usual exchange of gifts, there will be a money tree. Proceeds will be used for the new Sunday school fund. Members of the church and their friends are invited.

A business meeting will be held at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Alice Spehgar in charge. Mrs. Walter Stanton will lead the devotionals.

cent Viellenave, Floyd Mead, Thomas Foster, Edward Morgan and David Jones.

The 1958 officers not installed were introduced: flag bearer, John Pennington; prompter, Frank Thompson; electrician, Arthur Hedrick. "Bless This House" was sung by the soloist of the evening and the Holy Bible closed and the Benediction given.

The officers in a retiring march formed a Star around the Altar and Vivian Cook, Past Matron, entered carrying a candle and gave a beautiful candlelight service.

The hostesses for the year will be Ada Drake, Phyllis Fluhrer, Beatrice Bryson, Rena Shepherd, Fern Evrett, Betty Stewart, Freida Shaffer, Carolyn Pennington, Lois Sherwood and Elizabeth Allen. They formed an aisle of march and the officers retired to the banquet room, which had been decorated beautifully in the year's colors. The tables were placed to form a huge star. The following Past Matrons poured at the tables. Helen Miller, Joan Mosher, Dorothy Fylken, Joan Simpson and Gladys Mothersell. Chairman of Installation was Vivian Cook; chairman of reception, Joyce Miller; flowers and pinons, Garnett Satterfield; ushers, Homer Morgan and Floyd Mead.

There are 16 active members in the club which holds its business meetings at the city hall in Torrance.

Club members usually help out on all campaigns that will benefit humanity. They also have adopted a ward at Harbor General Hospital and take baskets of fruit and gifts to the patients there. In addition they try to make voters aware of and participate in movements which would tend to improve social, civic, and the industrial welfare of the community.

ADAPTION OF OPERA GIVEN

An adaptation of Gian-Carlo Menotti's "Amahl and the Night Visitors" was read by Mrs. Franklin H. Blackmer at the AAUW meeting last night at the YWCA.

In addition Mrs. Blackmer played recorded music from the opera.

Mrs. Blackmer is a member of AAUW, Pi Lambda Theta, the American Psychological Assn., and Ed. M from Harvard University.

Music was presented by students from San Pedro High School under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Shuck.

Preceding the program members and their friends attended the bazaar starting at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Juliet Moore as chairman. Proceeds from this go to the Fellowship fund and to the general budget.

VISIT GRANDPARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Davis and daughters, Kris, Carol and Stacie, 22312 Marjorie Ave., spent the Thanksgiving holiday and week end in the Greenhorn Mountains at Springville where they were guests of Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Caetano.
