No Vacations for Warrior Cagers

Vacation will be only a byword to basketball players of El Camino College as they continue a hectic schedule over the holidays. The Warriors will make appearances in two tournaments prior to returning to classes in January.

Starting the list will be the Sam Barry Tournament which opens the day after Christmas and will run for four days. This in Glendale. The Warriors have not made a good showing there since '53, when they placed second to Long Beach.

Hickman Leads Angels to Win

Tommy Hickman proved to be the big gun Saturday afternoon as the Angels downed their third basketball opponent by defeating the Padres 24-8 at Normandale playground.

The red-clad Angels rushed to an early lead, sparked by Hickman and Robert Chandler, as they rolled over the hapless Padres, 12-0 in the opening quarter.

Hickman was high point man for the game, bucketing 10 points. Chuck Ault was a bright prospect for the Padres as he garnered six for his team's eight counters.

Bob Hutton showed up well in the scoring columns for the Warriors in games against Pasadena and Mt. San Antonio.

Angels (8) Padres (0)
 R. Chandler (6) F. C. Ault (6)
 D. Hickman (5) C. J. Walker (0)
 M. Malone (1) G. B. Bender (2)
 T. Hickman (10) G. R. Dreher (0)
 Halftime score: Angels 15, Padres 4.
