"Nothing But the Blood of Jesus" will be the topic of the sermon to be delivered by Rev. Gerald Ney, minister of the newly-formed congregation. Following services refreshments will be served. The first meeting of the Sunday School will take place this Sunday at 9 a.m. at the YWCA.

Lutherans To Dedicate New Building

The newly constructed educational building of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Normandie and Lomita Blvd., Harbor City, will be dedicated at services to be conducted Sunday at 3 p.m. Contemporary in design, the unit has two class rooms and a principal's office. Arrangements for the dedicatory service include choral selections to be rendered by the children's and adult choirs and a guest speaker. After services in the church, the congregation will proceed to the new class rooms where the keys will be given to the pastor, E. M. Passow, by Ray H. Ferrin, chairman of the building committee. Open house will follow.

Lomita Church To Hold Crusade

St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Normandie and Lomita Blvd., Harbor City, is completing plans for an evangelistic crusade to be held Tuesday, Jan. 27, through Thursday, Jan. 29, at 7:30 p.m. A fellowship hour will follow each evening service to afford the guests an opportunity to meet members of the church. Refreshments will be served by the Ladies Guild under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Sale, hospitality chairman.

Lucky Stores Names New Real Estate Manager

Appointment of E. A. Backlund as real estate manager of Lucky Stores, Inc., Los Angeles Div., was announced today by W. W. Frankenberg, Division Manager. Backlund, whose appointment is part of a long-range expansion program in Southern California, will be responsible for the procurement of new store sites, leases, and other area real estate matters, it was announced. Frankenberg said that in addition to Torrance, Lucky presently operates stores in Redondo, Hermosa, Bell, Lomita, Inglewood and Long Beach, with two more now under construction in Long Beach and Norwalk. A World War II Army veteran who attended San Francisco City College, Backlund brings to Lucky Stores a wide range of experience.
