New South High Gym Is Opened To Studentbody

South High officially opened its new 40,000 square foot gymnasium Tuesday in a special-ribbon-cutting ceremony. The new facility provides a gymnasium and separate shower and locker facilities for both boys and girls. It also includes three classrooms to be used for various phases of instruction. The gym is part of the second unit of buildings at South High. And with 12 additional classrooms was built at a cost of $1,086,000. Work now is underway on the third unit of buildings at the school including a library, cafeteria and additional class-

THS Grapplers Place in CIF

Three of Coach Bill Hogue's Torrance High Varsity Wrestlers placed in the CIF wrestling finals held at Mount Miguel High School last Friday. The Tartar team placed seventh in the competition, which included some thirty schools in the Southern California section. Stuart Buckalew, 130 pounder, placed second in his weight class for top honors. Adolf Duran, 106 pound class, and Dave Fiorelli, 157, both gained fourth places. A fourth unit is also scheduled to allow enrollment of up to 3000 students. Present enrollment includes ninth, 10th, and 11th grades, with 1340 students.

Lomita League Tryouts Set

The Lomita Little League will stage its second and final tryout session this Saturday, March 7th at Chandler Field. Bill Stowell, player agent for the League reports that Batting and Base Running will be covered in this tryout. Candidates should report on the following schedule: 8 year olds, 8:40 a.m.; 9 year olds, 9:30 a.m.; 10 year olds, 12:30 p.m.; 11 year olds, 1:30 p.m.; 12 year olds, 2:45 p.m. Any boy who missed the first session of tryouts must attend the second session if he wishes to play ball this year. Parents are welcome to attend.

Dodgers have signed star pitcher of Army Air Force. He's Douglas Ray Gassaway, of Arlington, Texas, a right-hander.
