Deepsea Fishing Rodeos Open in Coast Waters

The Ocean Fish Protective Association kicked-off the '59 deep sea sport last Sunday with the first in a series of "Deepsea Fishing Rodeos," slated throughout the season in cooperation with the various landings up and down the coast.

"Rodeo days," tend to cement the relationship between owners and operators of sport-fishing landings and the sport fishermen as both stand behind OFPA activity. "Rodeo" fishing addicts pay $10 for their fishing trip with the entire amount going to the OFPA conservation fund, as landings donate boats, foot the bill on bait, fuel, top notch skippers and crews. No better way for movements of the OFPA than sport fishermen to support the by building up a fund that will keep their favorite sport from going down the drain, besides, they might even be awarded an OFPA trophy for the largest catch of the day.

Camino Golfers San Diego JC To Meet Monday

Two closely ranked teams will meet at the Mission Valley Country Club tomorrow afternoon, when El Camino College golfers meet the team from San Diego Junior College.

Having dropped a close match to a strong Long Beach State College team, the Warriors are out for revenge at the expense of the Border City linksmen. A loss to either team will be expensive in a Conference sparked by high-powered teams.

Pacing the Warriors thus far has been Ed Weber, a mainstay along with Gary Reynolds and Larry McElroy.

Newcomers expected to see action with the Warriors are Steve Crowell, Joe Carbone, Larry Martez and Jack Payton, none of whom has had an opportunity to participate extensively in conference play to date.

The Warriors will head north on March 18. On the Northern trek, they will meet Fresno Junior College and the College of Sequoias.

Saxon Netters Score Victory

North High's Saxon netters scored their second victory of the just begun 59 campaign when they turned the tide on the Seahawks of Redondo Union High Thursday afternoon at Redondo. The final score was 8-1 with the Saxons taking charge of the win.

The victory gave the North men a 2-2 season record, having beaten Leuzinger and dropping two matches to John Muir. Hopes for a banner year are high on the squad, with the Saxons ready to challenge the Beverly Hills Normans for a share of the Pioneer Loop title.

Scoring: North (5), Redondo (1), Constock (N) 6-3, 5-2 over Reisher (R), Blanchard (N) 6-1, 6-0 over Foster (R), Dolansky (R) 6-4, 6-4 over Danwood (N), Bell (N) 6-2, 5-6, 7-5 over Karavas (R), Schweinsinger (N) 6-0, 6-2 over Brooks (R).

Double: Hanlon-Boy (N) 2-6, 6-4, 10-8 over Bowman-Mansfield (R). Hierarchy (N) 7-5, 6-0 over Warner-Little (R).

Field Dedicated Camino College

El Camino College officially dedicated its new baseball field Wednesday afternoon, when the Warrior baseball team played host to the Trojans of the University of Southern California. The final score of the ball game was USC 9, El Camino 2.

Highlight of the dedication ceremony was the appearance of Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel at El Camino, throwing the first pitch to Don Clark, football coach of USC.

The learn pair served as the pitcher and catcher respectively forming the first battery and throwing out the first ball to open the new Warrior athletic facility.

Sloan was actually a relief pitcher for Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of El Camino College, who was scheduled to make the historic throw but Dr. Marsee threw too many hard ones in pre-game warm-up sessions and was forced to yield to ace reliever Sloan.

Arrowhead Restocked

The annual restocking of kokanee salmon in Lake Arrowhead was completed in the past week by the Department of Fish and Game. The plant consisted of 200,000 fry, averaging 7/8 of an inch in length, brought to Arrowhead by truck from the DFG's Mt. Whitney hatchery where they were hatched from eggs obtained from British Columbia.

North Torrance Babe Ruth Team Is Organized

The North Torrance Baseball League is ready to start their first season as an official member of the Babe Ruth Organization. They received their franchise recently after a long uncertain wait, according to Clarence Davis, publicity chairman.

The League will hold the first of a series of three tryouts Saturday at 10 a.m. The other two will be on March 21st and 28th. A number of boys have signed up to play, but others between the ages of 13 and 15 are encouraged to come to the tryouts. All boys must bring birth certificates.

The league is planning to have eight major teams this year. Managers and coaches will work with the prospective players to get a line on their preferences. Selection of teams by managers will be made after the third tryout date. Boys must live north of 100th St. in the city of Torrance and attend at least two of the three tryouts. They are to report to the Guenser Park ball field at 178th and Gramercy Place.

North Hi. Nine Register First Win in Season

Coach Bob Shoup's Saxon Varsity baseballers registered their first victory of the current season Thursday afternoon on the local diamond when they defeated the Mary Star of the Sea nine, 8-5. It marked the first practice victory in the history of the Saxon horse-riders.

Mary Star failed to clean the bases that it loaded, spelling defeat when they left 13 men stranded. Steve Mearling led the Saxon hitting parade, getting three for four, and one double included. Three errors marked the difference for the Mary Star crew, allowing a Mearling double for extra bases and one run for the Saxons.

Pete Kemp got credit for the pitching five of the seven innings. He gave up six hits and all five runs, while fanning eight. The Saxons collected eight runs on nine hits. The loss went to Al Windfelt who went the distance.

North has one more home tilt scheduled for Tuesday afternoon with Huntington Beach.

Forfeits Mar Industry Play

Two forfeit games marred play in the Torrance Recreation Department Industrial Basketball Loop at North High Tuesday evening. The Alumni five downed Ryan Aeros 44-37, only to be credited with a loss in the standings for using a player not signed before the early season deadline. The cellar dwelling Union Carbide quint failed to field a single player against the now champion Harvey quintet. Carbide has now lost nine straight games without a win. With but one game left to play in this year's race for the title, Harvey has seeded things up with an 8-1 record.

The North High Teachers wrapped up second place by virtue of their 51-39 victory over the Manor Barbers. Bill Wood netted 22 points to pace the Pros, and Center Harold Krislock southpawed an even dozen for the losers.
