Fifth Annual Spring Meet Set April 23

Mrs. Frank VomSteege, 2625 Border Ave., Torrance, says planning is in progress for the fifth annual Spring Fellowship of the Southern California district of United Foursquare Women, slated for Thursday, April 23, in the Santa Monica Foursquare Church.

The local resident, who is project chairman for the organization, disclosed that some 500 women, representing the more than 40 chapters of UFW in the Southern California district, are expected to attend the one-day event.

Theme for the 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. program, says Mrs. VomSteege, is "This is the Hour." Music and messages of the day will emphasize "service, fellowship and consecration."

According to the project chairman, Mrs. John Firth, Foursquare missionary on furlough from Colombia, will address the morning session. Guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. Allen Waldo Wickman, Torrance resident, whose husband is pastor of the Rolling Hills Covenant Church.

In celebration of their headquarters' birthday this month, members are to bring gifts for the Santa Ana House, distribution center for missionary supplies.

Mrs. Paul Colclasure of this city, who is divisional representative for the Centinella area, will head the delegation of members attending from Foursquare churches in this area.

HONOR BESTOWED . . . Perry PTA awarded two Honorary Life Memberships this year to two persons whose work with youth has been outstanding. Chosen for the coveted award were, from left, Mrs. Kenneth Judd and Mrs. Edward Murawski.

body do now? — RUSSIAN RULED STUDENTS
Dear Ann: The student body should be happy to have a principal who ALSO has courage. In my opinion, he has good judgment, too.

The ducktail is more than just a haircut—it's a symbol. The way a man or boy wears his hair reveals a good deal about him. I'm not saying this student is a hood. Maybe he's a perfectly nice kid who is in love with his hair and hates to part with it. But one thing is certain, no American teenager who is even slightly hip would sport a mop of hair plastered down with a half pint of goose grease—and THIS is the duck-tail.

You kids are going to hate me, but I call 'em as I see 'em. My congratulations to your principal. It takes nerve to do what he did.

Dear Ann: Will you please settle a family argument? My husband says a man can collect alimony from his wife. I have never heard of such a thing, but he claims he has. Is he out of his mind? Please put this in the paper where he can see it.—WIFE OF A NERT

Dear Wife: Your husband MAY be out of his mind, but he is right about this. There are many cases on record of men who have collected alimony. The wife must be proven at fault, however, and the husband must be either ill or unable (for some reason) to continue to live in the manner to which her money had made him accustomed.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' new book, "Teen-age Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)
