After the installation, the winners of the Torrance Band scholarships will be presented.

Post-Nuptial Shower for Recent Bride

Floating pink and white carnations, surrounded by an island of maiden fern and pink and white camellias, and flanked by pink, filigreed, beeswax candles set the theme for a post-nuptial shower given in honor of the former Miss Gertrude Elliott Burbage, Curriculum Consultant at the Torrance Unified School District, who became the bride of LeRoy E. Aldershof, Supervisor of Maintenance with the School District, in a surprise ceremony at Las Vegas, April 4.

The popular young matron, who resides at 1795 Marinette Street, was greeted by twenty-five of her School District associates in the home of Mrs. Don Nash, 2053 Kathy Way, Torrance, Monday, April 4.

A buffet of pink and white open-faced sandwiches, nut breads, and marshmallow fluff fruit salad, coffee and tea was served by the hostesses, Mmes. Cliff Treize, Don McCalman, Earl V. Swenson, Irene Smith, and Mrs. Nash.

Other guests attending the festivities were Mmes. Lloyd Cook, William Colby, Herbert Sherwood, O. W. Hakanson, James Shidler, Robert Poole, Dean Zander, Pat Lupin, Karl Keldser, James Perry, Jack Chronister, Ray Peterson, Norman Olsen, Pauline Stagner, Dorothy Leach, Alberta Leightner, Barbara Corley and daughter, Shelley, and Misses Sara Cina, Claudia King and Jean Montaigne.

Game prize winners were Mmes. Shidler, Leach, Leightner and Hakanson.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend, were: Mmes. Charles Denmarsh, Kenneth Divine, Frank Vermeersch, Glenn Henderson, Erwin Whitcomb, Wayne Brannum, Joe MacZuga, Harold Shields, Jack Woodruff, Dan Bunch, Wes Megow, Tom Reyes, Charles Ward, Helen Pupkoff, Misses Martha Tolliver, and Judy Mathews, and Messrs. Mothers Plan Events to Aid Jobies

Mothers club of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, held their monthly meeting Wednesday, April 8 at the home of Mrs. J. K. Clutter, 814 Acacia. Mrs. Lee Stamps was co-hostess.

Mrs. Wanda Wells, president, appointed Mrs. C. J. Witt as the new inspirational chairman.

The group plans another salad luncheon on May 20 from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Willys Blount, 1444 El Prado. Co-chairman is Mrs. George Crabtree.

Tentative plans are being considered for a Breakfast as well as a Sample Fair. The mothers raise money to pay a share of the Bethel's expenses to Summer Camp in August.

The next meeting for the group will be on May 13 at the home of Mrs. Glen Hardcastle, 24402 Ward. Co-hostesses are Mmes. Carl Cramer and Dale Wands.

Ann Landers

Dear Despondent: Shame on you for being jealous of Grand-ma. Your life is ahead of yours—hers is almost over.

Let her enjoy the child. Be happy there is someone to occupy the boy's interest while you get the new baby off to a good start. Do you know what a blessing it is not to have a two-year-old hanging on to your skirts trying to get attention away from the baby?

Grand-ma has solved a thorny problem. Revamp your thinking and try to see the advantage of the situation. You'll feel much better—and so will everyone else.

Dear Ann: I work for a company that has announced all employees must put in four hours on Saturday. My wife is raising the roof. She says I should refuse. We get extra pay for the hours, but she says she'd rather have less money and more time with me.

No one else has squawked and I hate to be the first. We've been married 5 months and owe lots of bills. She says if I let myself be pushed around they'll be asking me to work Sundays next. Refusing could cost me my job. What shall I do?—WILL.

Dear Will: Who's "pushing you around"—except maybe that fleshy-brained wife? You're being offered more pay for more work. Put it back in her lap. Tell her if you say no to Saturday work it will probably mean you'll be spending the other six days of the week at home with her, too.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "lights dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Toastmistress Club to Meet

El Dorado Toastmistress club will meet Wednesday, April 22 at 10 a.m. Scrivener's restaurant, 3425 W. Manchester Blvd. This will be a "mystery" meeting in that each member will be given her subject as she enters the club.

IT'S BASEBALL TIME . . . Pacific Coast Little League staged its "Spring Swing" at the American Legion hall, 1109 Border Ave., on April 18 from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Mel Coates' orchestra played. Numerous door prizes, including a portable TV, were awarded. All parents and friends of Little Leaguers were invited. Wrapping door prizes are Mrs. Don St. John and Mrs. Don Moore, committee members, and Mrs. Jack Bausman, dance chairman. Proceeds will be used to purchase equipment.

Junior Club Enjoys Play; Hear Reports For the Year

Spirit of the old west filled the clubhouse last Wednesday evening, April 8, when the drama section of the Torrance Woman's club staged a drama, "Have Gun, Will Run". The play was written and directed by Mrs. John Stokely.

"Cowboys" singing western tunes opened the play. They were Mmes. Lee E. Allen, Charles Briner, Elgin E. Logsdon, Clifford Treize, and Robert Evans. The cast of characters in the western drama were Mmes. Richard W. Folk, Douglas Horlander, Charles H. Turner, Eugene Lenk, William Starr, Robert Bartz, Joseph Boylan, Gerson Jacobson, Don Carlson, A. R. Felando Jr., and Jack C. Dean. Mrs. Wade White was pianist.

Working in the production cast were Mmes. Charles Crandall, Clayton T. Lilley, John K. Mallory, and Richard N. Oliver.

Following the drama, Mrs. J. G. Louvier, president, conducted the business meeting. She called for reports from the members of the club that had served in office or chairmanship for the past year.

Reports of the progress in the past year were given by Mmes. Kenneth Boulter, first vice-president; John K. Mallory, third vice-president; W. E. Starr, recording secretary; Barton A. Tatum, corresponding secretary; Lee E. Allen, treasurer; John A. Hall, auditor; Jack C. Dean, reporter; D. E. Moore, parliamentarian; Robert Eipper, junior-senior director; and William Sturgis, federation director.

Also, Mmes. Lee Clotworthy, Americanism; James K. Lees, Build-a-Better Community; Richard W. Folk, Torrance dental health; John M. Stokely, drama; James Van Dyck, music; Elgin E. Logsdon, handicrafts; Gerson Jacobson, Penny Art; Clifford Treize, international affairs; Allen E. Hofferber, press book; Joseph J. Boylan, youth; Eugene Lenk, bridge; Edward D. Aiken, bul-

Attending the meeting from the Torrance Woman's Club were Mmes. Don Wolf, president; J. L. Clifford, James Burchett, Joseph Bay, and the co-ordinators, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt and W. O. Clausung.

Mrs. Kenneth Miller was hostess for the evening, assisted by Mmes. Clifford Treize, James Van Dyck, Wade White, Charles Turner and Leonard A. Schulwitz.

Don McCalman, guest book; Douglas Horlander, inspiration; Lee Clotworthy, point system; Edwin Hatter, remembrance; and William I. Rogers, year book.

The main philanthropy projects of the club year were the YMCA Teen Canteen, which the club redecored and furnished with a complete sound

Kappa Deltas to Elect Officers

South Bay Kappa Delta Alumnae Assn. will meet Wednesday, April 22 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Larry Burns, 26212 Silver Eagle Road, Rolling Hills. An important business meeting will be held followed by the election of officers for the coming year. All members are urged to be present.

A social hour and refreshments will conclude the evening. Those wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Albin Johnson.

Club Plans May Festival

Final plans for the May bazaar and dinner will be made at the meeting of the Betsy Ross club of the OES on April 21 at the Masonic Temple. Chapter members who have never attended Betsy Ross club are especially invited to this meeting and are asked to bring their own sandwiches.

The May festival will be held on Saturday, May 16, at the Temple. This is an annual event featuring an afternoon bazaar and dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Chairmen having charge of the bazaar are: Marguerite Morgan, baked foods and salads; Lois Louke, gift tea towels; Ada Drake, baby wear booth; Frieda Shaffer, fancy work; Francis Reiser, aprons; Aletha Smith, white elephants; Lucy Bottai, gadgets; Bernice Ruppel, games. There will also be a homemade candy booth.

POLYNESIAN PARTY PLANNERS . . . Making notes on the exotic foods to be featured at the Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance, where many localities will attend the May 3 "Aloha to Hawaii" luau, are (from left) Mmes. William M. Fletcher, William E. Wells, Harold Griffin and Ben F. Hicks. The island festival will salute our 50th state and also mark the partial reopening of the dining establishment.
