Choral Festival To Be Presented

Temple Menorah Choir of Redondo Beach will present a Passover Choral Festival, at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the temple Sanctuary, 112½ N. Catalina, under the direction of Fay Newman, soprano and Harry Newman, cantor.

Passover rites commemorate the Exodus of the Jewish People from Egypt and their freedom from slavery 3500 years ago.

The choir and Cantor Newman will be heard in "Elijah the Prophet" and "The Waters of Babylon." Featured in the musical service will be a medley of Passover songs styled in the modern manner, arranged and sung by Fay Newman.

Mrs. Newman, a professional singer from Chicago, received her degree from the American Conservatory of Music, appeared on many radio and T.V. shows, sang the leading roles in "La Traviata," "Faust," "Il Trovatore" and "Carmen," with the American Opera Co., and toured with the "Gilbert and Sullivan Light Opera Co." She did concerts with the Universities of Kansas and Wisconsin.

She has sung, directed and written music for temple
