

THEY WILL DANCE . . . This group of Howard Wood students under the direction of Mrs. Paul Braswell, PTA president, will dance at the Variety show being staged by the PTA Council for the Lunch and Milk Fund. They are, front row, Sharon Johnson, Ann Edwards, Dixie Miller and Eileen Muranaka. Back row, Larry Helphand, Cheryl Tucker, Sharon Hamilton and Marilyn Rye. The benefit show will be held at the Civic Auditorium, April 30 and May 1. Tickets may be obtained from any PTA president.

Greenwood

At the recent Fern-Greenwood PTA meeting an inspiring program was put on by their sponsored groups.

The flag ceremony was presented by Scout Leaders Mrs. Riggs, 532; Mrs. Voien and Mrs. Wahl, 568; and Mr. Boodman of 728K. Eagle Scout Larry Reintsma from Explorer Troop 728X gave the inspirational message. Girls of Troop 914 presented a skit on outdoor living by Girl Scouts. Brownies from Troops 25 and 49 sang two Brownie action songs. The Explorers of Troop 728X showed movies they had taken on their recent "Survival Training" trip.

Girl Scouts of Troop 566 presented a puppet show using puppets they had made under the direction of the Recreation Art and Crafts Dept. This opportunity helped the girls earn their first class in the area. Wearing costumes of foreign countries they had made, the girls of Troop 532 sang some international songs. Mr. Moreland, Cubmaster for 728C, gave a short talk pointing out some activities of Cubbing. Cub Scout Moore gave a demonstration of what his group, in Den 1, had studied last month. Boys from Den 10 put on a short, short skit stressing the need for more Cubs in their den. Boys from Scout Troop 728 held closing ceremonies with the association participating.

During the business portion of the meeting, delegates to the 33rd District Convention were elected. Members were reminded of the Parent Education meeting on Primary Reading to be held Tuesday, April 28, at 9:45 a.m. in the Fern Cafeteria, and the coming Paper Drive to be held on May 15.

Crenshaw

Highlights of Crenshaw's April PTA meeting was a fashion show and hat show. Students and parents participated in the fashion show wearing clothing they had made themselves or their mothers had made. Decked out in their finest were: Linda and Sandra Schmitz, Karen Robinson, Elen Cobb, Gail Hatfield, Cheryl and Dianne Sturgart, Roxie Chapman, Patty and Irene Chappelle, Linda Steele, Connie Taggart, Alice Lisowski, Vivian Beriro, Marge Whitley, Adele Hock, Donna Hemphill, Frankie Ischauner, Adrienne Chatelle, Mrs. Archie Smith, Mrs. Edward Hollyman, Mrs. Albert, Cheryl Lee Peltier, Mary Webster, Joyce Jones, Susan White and Charlene Smith. Winning the contest for the most original hat was Linda

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

VEGETABLE COUNTERS INSPIRE . . . A big vegetable salad . . . crisp CARROTS from the Valley and either red or green CABBAGE. Also, plenty of AVOCADOS, LETTUCE and ROMAINE.

Try ARTICHOKES either hot or cold.

ASPARAGUS BROCCOLI CAULIFLOWER CELERY ONIONS SQUASH

Summer and Winter Watch for WHITE ROSE NEW POTATOES . . . (Long Whites!) FRUITS—

Citrus fruits remain the No. 1 fruit buy . . . NAVAL ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT. Creamy mints melted and served over grapefruit is delicious.

CALIFORNIA STRAWBERRIES are in full swing. Flavor and quality are reported good for early berries.

Team fresh strawberries and Rhubarb in a pie on a half and half basis. So good!

WINESAP APPLES are low in price and good for so late in season.

POULTRY (broiler - fryers) our old stand-by, remains our very best protein buy. It is reasonable. SAUSAGE is a good buy . . . as well as Table Ready Meats. These are already cooked and some of them are best served hot.

There is plenty of red meat around . . . carefully check your market ads for "specials". EGGS. We just don't know how to say more about eggs. They continue to be one of your best buys.
