representing Dominguez Estates; Jim Murray, publicist; Arthur "Red" Patterson, Dodger vice president; Sports Writer Howard L. Handy; and Dodger Duke Snider. A second meeting of Dodger officials to study the proposal for a Dominguez area site is scheduled for this week.

Area Growth Subject for Open House

Regional planning commission of Los Angeles County will commemorate its 35th anniversary on Friday, with an open house in the County Engineering Building, 108 W. Second St., Los Angeles, announced Arthur Baum, chairman.

The commission is the advisory body to the supervisors on all matters related to planning in the unincorporated area of the County and for regional planning throughout the County.

Preparations are now completed for an exhibit which illustrates the activities of the commission over the past 35 years. The exhibit will be on display at the open house.

Members of the board of supervisors, the commission and the director of planning will be present to greet guests at the anniversary celebration.

Denner stripes to Ricky Richman, Michael Flach, Stephen Sein, Terry Clifford, and Bryan Alexander. Assistant denner stripes to Michael Clifford, Stephen Eide, and John Auguston.

The webelo badge was awarded to Daniel Scott. The webelo badge and graduation certificate into the Boy Scouts was given to eight boys: Robert Aggen, Fred Raeder, David Ramsey, Donald Yeager, Michael Parker, Jeffrey Parsons, Gary Stauffer, and Donald Gaw.

Boy Scout Troop 211 Committee chairman for Boy Scout Troop 211, sponsored by the Howard Wood PTA, were elected for the year at a recent meeting of the group.

Joe Helphand was named chairman for the group and will be assisted by Mrs. Reuben Hill, secretary; Jay Neilson, institutional representative; Mrs. William Stoltz, treasurer; W. H. Hixson, transportation chairman; Raymond Ramsey, a camping chairman, and Jack Hoy, ways and means chairman.

Other committee assignments include Ray Hollans, advancement chairman; Larry Brown, parent contact chairman, and Mrs. Reuben Wroge, telephone chairman. Publicity will be handled again by Mrs. Gordon S. Jones.

Scoutmaster for the second year is D. E. Cooke, and his assistant will be Gordon S. Jones. Camp outings have been planned through next June with the first outing—a 12-mile hike—slated for Jan. 18. Jack Hoy is handling the pancake breakfast plans for the future as a fund-raising event. The troop still needs tents and supplies. Scoutmaster Cooke reports.

Training in the duties of church officers will be given Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church members at a series of six workshops to be held in Glendale during the month of January.

26 El Camino Students Seeking Posts in Elections Next Week

Twenty-six El Camino College students have tossed their rosters' caps into the ring in preparation for elections to be conducted on campus Monday and Tuesday.

Offices for which the polls will open include posts in Associated Student government and those of the Associated Men and Women students. In charge of election procedures is Miss Lynne Smith, vice president of the Associated Students and recent princess in ECC homecoming activities.

Two contenders have announced their candidacy for the office of student president. They are Carl Tate and Herman DeNunzio, both of Inglewood.

Inglewood Grad DeNunzio is a graduate of Inglewood High School and a drafting major. During the past semester he has held the post of commissioner of athletics on the Warrior campus. He is a member of the Sigma Phi Kappa fraternity and is 20 years old.

Tate is also a graduate of Inglewood High School. The 22-year-old business administration major served during the past semester as commissioner of assemblies and vice president of Chi Gamma Iota, campus veterans' organization.

Torrance Candidates Seeking the No. 2 spot in student government for the coming semester are three candidates for ASB vice president. They are Miss Leslie Higginbotham, 21231 S. Figueroa St., Torrance; Miss Marilyn Moss, 225 Via Alameda, Torrance, and Ted Wrinkle, Manhattan Beach.

Don Quackenbush and Donald E. Martin, both of Inglewood, are opposing candidates for the post of commissioner of assemblies.

Lone aspirant for the office of commissioner of assemblies is Walter J. Becker, 16205 Wilkie Ave., Torrance. Seeking the office of commissioner of athletics are James A. Packard, Lawndale, and Allan McCulloch, Inglewood.

Three coeds aspire to election as commissioner of public relations. Incumbent Gaye Wilson, 3960 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance, will oppose Betty Kotwichi, Gardena, and Laura Dumagan, Redondo Beach, for the post.

Bruce Ferrell, Manhattan Beach, and James Peterson, Inglewood, will vie for the office of commissioner of rallies. Miss Sandra Eddy, Inglewood, will run unopposed for the position of president of the Associated Women Students.

Three candidates have taken out petitions for the Associated Men Students' presidency. They are Chuck Alverson, 3812 W. 185th St., Torrance; Dick Jones, Hermosa Beach, and Pat Murry, Hermosa Beach.

Our Slip Shows

In a story reporting the election of Marshall W. Pine of the Lomita Civic League published here Thursday, it was stated in error that Pine succeeds L. E. Ross. It's not so, says Mrs. M. S. Goodwin, secretary to the group. Pine succeeds Herbert B. Brisbin, who has served as president during the past year. Ross was chairman of the anti-incorporation drive for the league during the past year.
