Inspirational Meeting Set For Women

All women of Park View Lutheran Church and their friends are invited to attend the first Women of the Church Inspirational meeting of 1958 next Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in the church parish hall.

According to Lillian Riede, the program chairman, the Rev. Nelson Trout pastor of Community Lutheran Church in Los Angeles will speak on "Race Relations." He is considered one of the outstanding preachers in the California district of the American Lutheran Church.

The members of the congregation are urged to attend the annual meeting next Sunday at 2 p.m. to approve the year's program and budget and to hear a report on the union of three Lutheran Church bodies: the United Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Evangelical Lutheran Church and the American Lutheran Church.

Local Council Concludes Full Schedule

The local Ave Maria Council, Ladies of Columbus, culminated a busy year of charitable and social activities with a Christmas dinner party recently.

The new year will see the council plunging into new activities, among them the collection of clothing and other needed articles for a mission in Baja California. Activities for January included the Expectant Mothers Ceremony immediately following their business meeting on Jan. 6. On Jan. 20, the group will hold an initiation of new members.

The date of one of the main charity affairs of the year, held by the combined councils of the Ladies of Columbus, will be Feb. 8. That will be the Annual Charity Ball, to take place at the Veterans' Memorial Hall in Culver City.

Guild's Roman Holiday Style Show Set Jan. 29

A "Roman Holiday" influenced by the dictates from the fashion centers of Italy will be staged on Wednesday evening, Jan. 29, at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's Club when St. Gerard's Guild of the St. Margaret Mary parish in Lomita entertains at its second annual fashion show.

Mrs. Joseph J. Boylan is serving as general chairman. Mrs. Frederick Steinbroner is prefect of the sponsoring guild; Mrs. Leo F. X. Salisbury will serve as mistress of ceremonies and Mrs. Douglas Hart will be the narrator.

A parade of spring's newest fashions, provided by two Torrance and one Lomita shop, will be shown against an Italian background on the stage. A grey and Italian blue theme will be used throughout the decorations.

The committee will serve dessert and coffee. During the intermission a pantomime and ballet will be given by the students from Bette Thomas Studio directed by Jay Lanegan. Numerous door prizes will also be awarded.

Tickets are on sale now and may be secured from guild members or at the door on the night of the show.

It has also been announced that in addition to the fashions for women there will be a style show of fashions for the young miss, for Dad and big brother, too.

Mrs. Frances Davidson and Mrs. Milford Reinartz are serving on the decorating committee; Mrs. Robert Dies is heading the ticket sales and Mrs. Leo Salisbury is in charge of the door prize. The entertainment is to be secured by Mrs. Frederick Steinbroner and Mrs. Robert Clotworthy.

Refreshments committee is composed of Mmes. Donald Whitman, Roland Webber, Leo Renaud, Pete Zamperini, Joseph Orsini and Douglas Hart.

Plant Life Is Topic at Group Meet

Garden Section of the Torrance Woman's Club met last Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse with Mrs. Sid Gans, vice chairman, opening the meeting in the absence of Mrs. John Thuss, chairman.

Mrs. John Warnock, program chairman, presented Bob Utterman, representative of a spray chemical company, who gave a lecture on the control of garden pests, insects and plant diseases. An open discussion followed with a question and answer period.

The speaker also showed a colored film entitled "The Mystery of Plant Life."

After the program, a dessert was served with Mrs. E. C. St. Amand as chairman of the refreshment committee. Mrs. Dean Sears presided at the coffee service. The table floral arrangement was done by Mrs. G. Nelson.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. Charles Schultz Jr., Marguerite Carblod, S. J. Dunhouse, Esther Wilson, Rose Watson, Martin Jones, Sid Gans, W. B. Cargo, G. Nelson, John Warnock, John Keefer, Lou Maxwell, John Stephens, E. C. St. Amand, P. Boonstra, Bertha Aspey, Piet Kamstra, H. C. Sandberg, Rufus Sandstrom.

Others were Mmes. Rufus Jackson, R. E. Moffitt, Bess Myers, Sears, Alma Smith, F. G. Fittin, G. S. Evans and McCune Beale.

The section's next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 22 at 1 p.m.

Montgomery Mothers Club Holds Meeting

The second meeting of the Mother's Club of the Parent-Faculty organization at Bishop Montgomery High School featured an address by the Rev. Finto Brannigan, S. J., pastor of St. Andrew's Catholic Church in El Segundo. This scholarly review of Catholic Church history down through the centuries was interspersed with anecdotes of Father Brannigan's career as a Jesuit missionary in Yugoslavia, India and China.

Mrs. Joseph Moore, chairman, of Manhattan Beach, presided at the meeting held at the library of the new high school at 5430 Torrance Blvd. Reports were given by committee chairmen Mrs. John J. Porizek, of Lawndale, education; Mrs. Roger Le Pont, of Lomita, library; Mrs. Fredrick Koch, of Torrance, health; Mrs. Joseph Frisno, of Lomita, social; Mrs. Howard M. Schott, of Torrance, publicity; and Mrs. Gregory Gordon, of Torrance, ways and means. Mrs. Gordon's report included plans for the group's participation in the television program "It Could Be You" on Feb. 14.

An evening party for the parents, who represent 13 parishes in this area, is planned for later this month, giving the group an opportunity for conviviality.

The Hon. E. Laughlin Waters, U.S. District Attorney, will speak on "Parental Responsibility" at a meeting of the Parent-Faculty organization at the school on Sunday, Feb. 9, according to an announcement by Mr. Michael McNulty, school principal.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The hostesses were Mrs. John J. Rice of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Henry Miska, Mrs. Donald Ramstead, of Lawndale, and Mmes. Leo J. Secules, George Weaver and Karl Jacobs, of Torrance.

The next regular meeting of the Mother's Club will be held Feb. 10, at the school library.
