

Redondo Woman Years First Fatality

The first traffic fatality of 1958 in Torrance was recorded early Sunday morning when a head-on collision took the life of a Redondo Beach woman.

Dead on arrival at Harbor General Hospital was Delfina Hernandez, 51. A passenger in Mrs. Hernandez' car, Mrs. Grace Flores, 48, and the other driver, Norman Francis Baisch, 25, both of Redondo Beach, were treated at Harbor and then released.

On Wrong Side
Police said the Hernandez car was traveling north on Crenshaw Blvd. west of 203rd

St., on the wrong side of the road.

Baisch told officers he was traveling south on Crenshaw when he suddenly was confronted by the oncoming car in his lane of traffic.

Investigating officers and ambulance attendants spent more than 10 minutes freeing Mrs. Hernandez, who was pinned in the car.

Leave the Scene
The dead woman's husband, Joe H. Hernandez, and the husband of Mrs. Flores, Jesus M. Flores, left the scene of the accident before they were questioned by the officers.

Flores said the two left the scene because "Nobody was paying any attention to us."

Mrs. Flores reportedly told police she and Mrs. Hernandez had been drinking at a house warming party in Torrance.

Four Residents Receive Honors As Reservists

Four residents of Torrance were among 19 members of the 6218th Army Reserve Service Unit to be honored in a ceremony during open house activities at the Army Reserve Training Center, Hawthorne, Monday evening marking the unit's 10th anniversary.

The reservists all receive letters of commendation for outstanding attendance records during their 10 years of reserve service.

They include Lt. Col. Hubert L. Brier, commanding officer of the unit, at 122 Camino De Las Colinas and has a business at 2250 W. 235th St.; Capt. William B. Breaker, 821 Teri Ave.; M/Sgt. Robert C. Wilson, 1004 Faysmith Ave., and Sgt. 1/c Lowell D. Mills, 20537 Entradero Ave.

Also on the program was a skit depicting the operation of the unit—a reception station—in processing new recruits into the Army.

Col. John P. Dicks, Senior Army Advisor for Southern California, was an honored guest.

Many educators and other leading citizens in the area were invited.

C of C Board Gets Three New Members

Three new directors were appointed to serve one year terms on the Torrance Chamber of Commerce board of directors, according to O. R. Trueblood, chamber president.

New directors are John Strech, representing the WALTERIA area; Jack Phillips, representing the DEL AMO section; and Glen Koger, director at large.

Koger and Strech will be serving their second year and Phillips his third as director of the organization.

WEIGHT GAINS
During the spring and summer grazing seasons, beef cattle gain about 300 pounds.
