'Stardust' Ball Slated Saturday

Dancers of all ages will attend the "Stardust Ball" next Saturday evening at the civic auditorium when Skinny Ennis and his orchestra will furnish the music. The event is being sponsored by the Nativy Mothers Club. Dancing will begin at 8 p.m. and continue until 12. A number of clever mixer dances have been planned as a get-acquainted feature. Jack Harker will serve as master of ceremonies and refreshments will be served throughout the evening by Mrs. Harley Buerning, Milton Bourdeaux, and Frederick Cameron. Tickets may be purchased at the box office or from any member of the Mothers Club.

Serra School Mothers to Appear on TV

Serra High School Mothers' Club members will make their second TV appearance on "It Could Be You" scheduled for filming Wednesday, at 6 p.m. in NBC Studio "E", Sunset and Vine in Hollywood. Studio doors will close at 5:45 p.m. "The response at our previous appearance was so overwhelming that the invitation has again been extended to the Mothers Club," stated Mrs. J. J. Meenan, Gardena resident in charge of arrangements. "We should like to have members bring friends and neighbors with them," she added. Interviewed on the show in November were Mrs. George Strohmeier, Gardena, wife of Serra's football mentor; Mrs. R. J. Henely of Hawthorne, club past-president, and Bro. Joseph L. Hoffman, S.M., school principal.

Showering the future bride with gifts were: Meses. Kathryn Walsh, K. Hayden, Kay Beresford, Nancy Blackett, T. Leon, Bernie Merrill, Darlene Studor, Betty Purkiss, Mimi Gogian, Lenore Leon, Vonnie Deviny, Henry Evans, Marcy Butorick, Pauline Smith, Lily Beresford, Faye Smith and Glen Rice.

HAM DINNER

Fourth grade room mothers at St. Catherine Labourer will serve a ham dinner to the public at the parish hall Saturday evening from 5 until 8 p.m. "Our Valentine" has been chosen as the theme of the affair.

Y Workers Launch Space Race for New Members

A space race was launched in Torrance Monday as members of the Harbor area YWCA met at a luncheon to start their 1958 membership enrollment drive.

Stan Sweeney, sales manager for the Harbor Division of Southern Counties Gas Co., spoke on "No Place But Up" while Florence Williams, director of the Hollywood Studio Club, told of the activities of that YWCA residence which has been the home of many now famous stars.

Don Showalter, serving as master of ceremonies, introduced guests from the Harbor area covered by this association.

Kits were distributed and details of the race charted by Mrs. Otis S. Blackstone, membership director of the Harbor Area Assn.

The blast-off was planned by the public relations chairmen of each of the three branches and carried out the theme, "Space for You a Place for You—Join the YWCA." Mrs. John Schwartz of the Torrance Branch was in charge of decorations while others working out details of the kickoff were: Mrs. Arvilla Owens, of Wilmington, and Mrs. O. R. C. Grow of San Pedro.

Serving as honorary chairman of Wilmington, are Mrs. Guy Barnett and honorary chairman of Torrance, Mrs. Albert Isen.

Advance work in recruiting "crews" to work on the drive has been carried on by Mrs. P. M. Crossman, Torrance; Mrs. J. A. Henard, Wilmington, and Mrs. C. R. Halfpenny, San Pedro.

Lodge Group Auxiliary to Meet Feb. 8

The Fun and Fund Club of the Torrance Rebekahs will hold its first meeting of the year at the local Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., Wednesday, 12 noon.

A potluck luncheon will precede the business meeting. Plans for the year's activities will be discussed and committees will be appointed.

Mrs. Angeline Disario will succeed Mrs. Minna Reynolds as president of the group.

FETE BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Sharples, of Torrance, recently entertained with an exotic dinner party at The Polynesian in celebration of Mrs. Sharples' birthday anniversary.

Auxiliary to Meet Feb. 8

American Society of Tool Engineers Women's Auxiliary, Chapter 129, will meet Feb. 8, at Raffles Restaurant, Crenshaw Blvd. and 43rd St., in Liemert Park area.

This meeting will convene at 12 noon. It is an area meeting and the wives of all chapter members are urged to attend to meet their area and chapter officers and become acquainted with other chapter members.

Reservations are being taken until Saturday by Meses. John Walti, John Lindsay, Lloyd Kerner, Merrill Jenkins, for Chapter 129; Mrs. Glen Singer, for Chapter 27, and Mrs. Arnold A. Bazell, for Chapter 84.

Three Herin Children Are Christened

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Herin of Hawthorne, were christened last Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in Torrance, with the Rev. Donald Shelby officiating.

The children are Gary, three and a half years old, Mark, two, and Jean Marie, 8 months old. Standing as godparents for the youngsters were their aunt, Mrs. John Agapito, and Robert Staples.

Attending the christening were the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herin of Inglewood, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean, of Torrance. Other relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean and children, Jill, Jo and Judi, and Mr. and Mrs. John Agapito, and Debra and Vince.

The entire group including Rev. Shelby then went to the Carl Dean home, 2564 Torrance Blvd., for cake and coffee. Mrs. Herin, mother of the three children christened, is the former Karen Dean.

Square Dance

The Sea Aire Stars will stage a square dance Saturday at the Sea Aire Park fieldhouse, Reynolds and Lupine Drs., at 8:30 p.m.

The group is sponsored by the Torrance recreation department. Current rounds are taught and calls are by Clarence and Florence Barrow.
