L. O. Griffiths, president of the Harbor District Chamber of Commerce, will be installed for a third term at the annual installation banquet tonight to be held at the Leuzinger High School cafeteria, with Lawndale Chamber of Commerce as host.

John Gibson, president of the Los Angeles City Council, will officiate as the installing officer.

Other officers are Capt. Donohugh, San Pedro; Wes Simmons, Lawndale; Otho Corray, North Long Beach; Emlin Jones, Compton; Carl Hoffman, Southside, all vice presidents; treasurer, Roscoe Sevier, Gardena, and Secretary Kyle Piercy, Wilmington.

The Harbor District Chambers of Commerce now in its 42nd year is a federation of more than 50 Chambers of Commerce, public service groups, improvement associations, and others interested in the general welfare of the Harbor communities.

Two Students Given HASC Scholarships

Two local students have been awarded scholarships by the Harbor Area Scholarship Committee, according to Dick Meyers, chairman of the HASC. Winning a $100 scholarship was Rosa Duarte, 2602 W. 178th St., who is studying to be a teacher in her senior year at Long Beach State.

Isabel Argueta, 302 W. Carson St., was given a $75 scholarship.

Miss Argueta, a Banning High senior planning on a career in government service, will attend Harbor Junior College.

HASC is a volunteer group of Harbor Area lay persons and professionals of various nationalities that raises funds and distributes them in the form of scholarships to promising students of Mexican descent who need financial assistance.
