

NURSERY SCHOOL ON TV TODAY

Nursery School for Visually Handicapped Children in Los Angeles, with Esther Williams in the pool, will be featured on "You Asked for It," channel 7 today.

For several years, Miss Williams has been giving swimming lessons to these visually handicapped children, giving them pleasure, increasing their self confidence and helping them adjust to their handicap.

The school is entirely operated through the efforts of Delta Gamma Sorority in Southern California. It is the main phil-

Torrance PTA to Observe Founders Day, Elect New Officers at Tuesday Meet

Election of new officers, observance of Founders Day, and announcement of new honorary life members highlight the agenda for the annual open meeting of the Torrance Council PTA scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Tuesday at the Torrance Women's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Past presidents of the Torrance Council and top officers of the 33rd District PTA have been invited as special guests for the affair.

Past presidents, who are expected to attend the affair, include Mmes. W. E. Bowen, A.

C. Turner, Victor Benard, A. B. Cowie, Hartley Carr, M. A. Wright, and Francis Stoeckle.

Officers from the district will include Mrs. E. M. Findley, president; Mrs. G. H. Merrifield, Founders Day chairman, and Mrs. Ralph Robison, spiritual and character chairman.

Election of officers will follow reports of the nominating committee. Names to be placed in nomination by the committee include Mrs. Kenneth McVey, president; Mrs. Carl Cramer, first vice president; Mrs. William Poser, second vice president; Mrs. Jack Erving, third vice president; Mrs. Seth Warden, fourth vice president; Mrs. Leonard Spedole, recording secretary, and Mrs. C. F. Malone, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. V. B. Terry, who has been nominated for the office of treasurer of the 33rd District, is the committee's choice as financial secretary of the council. Mrs. Gene Vorhees will be nominated as historian and Mrs. Ronald Stamm as auditor.

Names may be nominated from the floor at Tuesday's meeting, according to Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, president of the Council.

Mrs. J. N. Oswell will present the Founders Day program which will be climaxed by announcing the new honorary life members.

A coffee hour starting at 9 a.m. will precede the business meeting. Babysitting services will be provided at the clubhouse.

El Nido

El Nido PTA Founders Day committee, composed of Mmes. Harley Smith, C. H. Brackett, Carlos Espinosa, Robert Mackin, Sarah R. Hooker, Mrs. Ira Hon, met at the home of chairman Mrs. W. A. Wright, 19328 Roslin Avenue on Monday, Feb. 3 to make plans for the Founders Day meeting to be held at the El Nido School on Wednesday, Feb. 19.

Founders Day commemorates the organization of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers on Feb. 17, 1897, in Washington, D.C. The Founders, Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst, and the other pioneers in Parent-Teacher work in the state, district, council, and local unit are paid a tribute, each year, as part of a birthday celebration.

The committee worked on bringing the Founders Day facts to light at their association meeting in an up-to-date manner. Thereby the game Tic Tac Dough has been changed to "Founders Here Goes" which will be narrated by Mrs. W. A. Wright while Mrs. C. Espinosa, Mrs. Ira Hon, Mrs. Robert Mackin and Mrs. C. Hooker take the parts of contestants.

223rd St.

The 223rd Street School PTA board held its February board meeting the first part of this month in the school auditorium and made plans for the regular PTA meeting to be held Tuesday and the party which the board members are giving for the room mothers.

As February is Founder's Day month, the group will honor Past President Mrs. David Goolsby at this meeting and an honorary life membership will be presented to some person. The time has been changed to facilitate child care. The social hour and refreshments will be from 12:30 o'clock to 1 o'clock and the meeting will be from 1 o'clock to 2 o'clock.

The party for the room mothers will be held Monday at the Normandale Playground from 9 o'clock to 12 noon and games will be played and refreshments served. Please bring a white elephant. Child care will be provided.

VISIT HOT SPRINGS

Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Huxtable and family, 5014 Calle de Arbolis, were recent guests at Glen Ivy Hot Springs.

Madrona

Madrona PTA meeting was held Thursday at the Madrona School Cafeteria with Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, presiding. The flag ceremony was led by Girl Scout Troop 635 under the leadership of Mrs. Harold Hays. Also present were: Brownie Troop 404, leader, Mrs. John Beahan. Mrs. A. U. Turner was elected representative for the council nominating committee. An interesting program followed the business meeting with a Health Sketch by the hired grade classes of Mrs. Lunetta Friedemann and Mrs. Edna Aronson. Students from rooms of Don Ronnie and Roy Adamson gave interesting health demonstrations and food experiments.

Mrs. Milton Sippel, American Field Service representative, presented foreign exchange students, Miss Nadia Basnadjian of Green, Miss Luise Elshout of Belgium, and Miss Mary Sippel, who spent last summer in Finland. They gave interesting speeches on life in their native countries and what they thought of this country.

Next association meeting will be Feb. 13. The theme is "Past, Present, and Future." There will be a Founders Day program, life membership award and special music.

Harbor City

Founders' Day will be observed at the monthly meeting of the Harbor City PTA, Tuesday, Feb. 11 at 1 p.m.

Past presidents who are expected to participate in the occasion are Mmes. J. A. Boecker, president 1917; H. Higgs, Max Schatz, Hattie Schroeder, Ann Davenport, William Sudduth, John Shields, Herman Ludwig, E. R. Walker, Fred Kroll, William Tregarthen, George Weeks, Ray Groover, Carl Gregory, Charles Hilzer, and Leland Van Buren.

A life membership will be presented by Mrs. James Alexander, current president. Nominations have been made for the oncoming election of officers and additional nominations will be made from the floor, under the direction of Mrs. Alexander, also, before voting is done by the members present.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting with fifth grade room mothers presiding.

ORACLES' CLUBS WILL ELECT

South Bay Past Oracles and Oracles Club of the Royal Neighbor Camps will hold a meeting at the Western Club in Gardena on Feb. 11.

At the business meeting, following luncheon, officers will be elected. Reports from all camps will be given. Camps to be represented are Torrance, Gardena, Inglewood, Ocean Park, Culver City, San Pedro and Redondo Beach.

Seaside

Seaside PTA met on Jan. 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria, with Mrs. Clyde Miller, president, in charge.

Following the flag salute conducted by Brownie Troop 1588, Michael Powers sang "The Love of God."

Nominations for a nominating committee to select officers were made. They are Mmes. William Steinwachs, Charles Nollenberger, Horace Radney, Wade Havens, David Smith. Their nominations will be announced at the next meeting.

Las Vecinas Woman's Club Chorus, directed by Mrs. Katherine Harvey, sang several musical selections.

The climax of the program was the presentation of two foreign exchange students, one from Greece, the other from Belgium, who spoke on their experiences in this country. A Torrance exchange student spoke on her stay in Sweden.

After the meeting foreign desserts were sold with donations going to the American Field Service, which sponsors the foreign exchange students.

259th Street

Big secrets will be revealed to all those attending the 259th Place School PTA, Lomita, meeting Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 7:30 p.m.

"I've Got a Secret" coming to you from PTA-TV, channel 259, promises to be both amusing as well as informative.

Mrs. William Kepley Jr., Founder's Day chairman, said that she was very fortunate to have such an excellent cast of fathers participating in the program. They are: Bill Kepley, John Kent, Terry Croker, Bob Buchanan, Jack Creager, Tom Kincannon, John Allen, Don Dunn, Warren Zell, and Ben Gardner.

The mothers in the cast are: Mmes. R. A. Stalmack, R. P. Boderman, W. G. Milburn, J. W. Creager, W. N. Kepley, D. E. Dunn, P. Orseth, E. H. Cook, C. R. Chitwood, B. A. Gardiner, T. B. Kincannon, and Miss Frances Dastarac, principal of 259th Place School.

Past presidents and Honorary Life recipients will be honored. Two honorary life memberships will be presented.

Stephen White

Theme for the Stephen M. White PTA Founders' Day program, Feb. 18, will be "Building Through Our Heritage." The eighth grade mothers will be hostesses. One honorary life membership will be awarded by Mrs. C. W. Wittenburg. Mrs. H. E. St. Clair, first president of the Stephen White PTA, resigned on Jan. 31. Mrs. Oscar Smith is the new president.
