

Red Cross Drive Leaders Call for More Volunteers

"Only a thorough organization of volunteers will guarantee the success of Torrance's expanded Red Cross fund drive," declared Residential Chairman Mrs. Mary Pagac this week in the course of an "urgent appeal" for another

200 workers needed to cover all local areas during next month's annual campaign. "The more volunteers we have, the easier it will be on everyone concerned," she continued and pointed out that any one of the following division chairmen may be contacted for assignments: Mrs. Nick 4617 Vista Montana; Perk Perkins, of 24483 Hawthorne Blvd., and Mrs. Morris Frislie, in charge of the Walteria organization.

We are determined to have a spirited campaign that will not only spell success for Torrance, but will result in expanded funds for the Red Cross," asserted the residential chairman. "But in order to do this, we must have enough workers," she emphasized while again urging prospective doorbell ringers to call her.

Section Chairmen
Also lined up to assist with the direction of residential solicitation activities are the following section chairmen: Mrs. Walter L. Kroneberger, Mrs. Frances McKnight, Mrs. Frank F. Forve, Mrs. Ralph Evestone, Mrs. Bonnie Zupparly, Mrs. Hazel Hyde, Mrs. John Mullick, Mrs. John Everett, Mrs. Joseph Olloque, Mrs. Alonzo eVnable, Mrs. Helen Whitehurst, Mrs. Charles Darrow, Mrs. H. Allison, and Mrs. O. Samuelson.

Other section chairmen include: Mrs. Maurine Tynor, Mrs. Louis Nichols, Mrs. Robert Feldman, Mrs. Frank Bowes, Mrs. Herbert Minten, Mrs. Susan Bond, Mrs. Kake Zwaagstra, Mrs. Floyd Newton, and Mrs. George Stevens.

Top leaders assisting Dr. Don Moshos as 1958 Red Cross fund chairman include Mrs. Pagac, residential chairman; Ray Wyatt, business chairman, and Hervey McCafferty, professional chairman.

Plaza Center Parents Meet

Plaza Center School parents will meet Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. in the board room at Torrance Unified School District headquarters.

Harold Ritz, commissioner of Boy Scouts for this area, will speak briefly and films of the Christmas party and others will be shown.

NARBONNE MEN TO SEE BILLY GRAHAM MOVIE

The Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church, 24730 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, will show the Billy Graham film, "Miracle in Manhattan," Thursday, Feb. 27, at the monthly Brotherhood meeting. This will also be Ladies' Night.

The film was made during the record breaking New York Crusade conducted by the evangelist, (who is a Southern Baptist, and member of the First Baptist Church of Dallas, Tex.

This meeting will be a dinner meeting that begins at 6:30. No charge will be made to see the film. The dinner will be served for $1.

On the past Sunday morning the pastor, Robert A. Wells, began a series of messages. The general subject is "His Word, a Challenge." He will continue this series Sunday with the message, "Am I Accountable to God?" "This is an attempt to show that man is responsible to God," the pastor stated. "Too often people are more concerned about pleasing men or feel that they are accountable to something other than God."

Youth night began Saturday night with a Sweetheart Banquet, attended by more than 100 young people. The coronation march highlighted the occasion. The candidates from the 14-year Union, Johnny Chaves and Susan Chevrier, were crowned as king and queen, the winning candidates. The next Youth Night will be March 1.

TRAMPOLINE ARTIST TO STAGE ACT

Harold Coates, trampoline artist, will appear in an assembly program at North High School, tomorrow. Coates' program is a visual demonstration of physical coordination, fitness and agility.

While in high school he mastered several acts for trampoline artists. Later on he became Los Angeles city tumbling champion, and in 1950 was junior collegiate national diving champion at Fullerton College.

While in the service, Coates and Dr. Sammy Lee were the only athletes to be selected by the Army to represent them in the Olympic try-outs. Professionally, he has appeared with the fabulous Harlem Globe Trotters, doing his trampoline act at half-time of the basketball game. He has also appeared on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town."

No. Torrance Demos Select 2 Candidates

The North Torrance Democratic Club met Monday and endorsed Vincent Thomas, assemblyman for the 68th Assembly District and Cecil King, U. S. Congressman, for the 17th District.

John Anagnostis and Jack White were chosen as delegates to go to the convention of the board of equalization. Four other delegates, John Mulvihill, John Anagnostis, Jack White and Harmon Belcher, were chosen to attend the Los Angeles county convention to be held March 1.

The FDR Memorial Dinner will be attended by two other members of the North Torrance Democratic Club, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinkel, 18503 Crenshaw Blvd. Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts will be guest speaker and special entertainment will be provided by George Jessel, "Toastmaster General of the USA."

Field Day Set For Students

Five North High School students will compete in a Math Field Day to be held at Occidental College on March 1.

Students representing North High are: Clarence Fuzak, David Klomp, Pat de Turk, Charlene Duval and John Falk.

The competition consists principally of performing mathematical problems with speed and accuracy. They range in difficulty from guessing weights and volumes to analytical problems.

Representatives from North High are in the process of improving their skills in order to compete with students from over 100 high schools in the Southern California area.
