NHS Scholarship Society Selects 81 New Members

North High School's chapter of the California Scholarship Federation recently accepted 81 members for the school semester ending in January and elected new officers.

Bill Lee Sr. was re-elected president of the honor organization. Other officers are Jerry Hickman, vice president; Judy Nelson, secretary; Pat Kimble, treasurer; Lella Santor, historian; and Julie Henderson, activities chairman. Richard Venturini is sponsor.

Three A's Needed
To become a member of the group one must have at least three "A's" and one "B" and no unsatisfactory citizenship marks.

New members are Jo Ainsworth, Marie Akashi, Bill Akin.

DRY CLEANERS HOLD MARINELAND MEET
Members of the South Bay Cleaning Assn. held its monthly meeting at Marineland recently, with President Wilbur Jones presiding.

Honored guests at the meeting were Lew Bellow of the National Institute of Dry Cleaning, Graham Featherman, president of the California Dry Cleaners Assn.; and George Shephard, executive secretary of the State Cleaning Assn. Plans for an active year were revealed.

Are You a Citizen of Torrance?
Voting Is Not Just a Privilege
It Is Your Duty as a Citizen

April 8th will be Election Day in Torrance. Torrance residents will vote on many officials and issues affecting the community. Will you be one of them?

The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with local Merchants will award fifteen, Fifteen Dollar Merchandise Certificates, redeemable at these stores.

Save your voting stub, as the drawing will be from these numbers after the election. Awards will be announced one week following the election.

- The following merchants have contributed—
- 1—LAWSON'S JEWELERS, 1317 EL PRADO
  - 2—PARAMOUNT BUILDERS SUPPLY, 3401 TORRANCE BLVD.
  - 3—GAY SHOP, 1319 SARTORI AVE.
  - 4—LIBERTY HOME APPLIANCE CO., 3445 TORRANCE BLVD.

(we need more merchants to step forward in the interest of civic betterment, and offer a fifteen dollar merchandise certificate. Please call FA1/rfax 8-5800—and ask for Jaycee, Bob Morris.)
