THOMAS ABRAMS Abrams Seeking Seat on Council For First Time

Tom Abrams and the committee to elect him to the Torrance City Council, met at the home of Joseph J. Boylan, Campaign Manager, Friday evening to review plans for the final stages of an all out campaign.

Abrams, as an active civic minded citizen and president of the Torrance Airport Commission has been an outspoken advocate for "Good Government."

"My main interest and desire is for honest, efficient and economic city government," Abrams said. "These basic tenets of good government are reflected in the principals for which I stand—an efficient civic government with the city departments staffed to serve the needs of our ever expanding city. For equal benefits and service to all sections of the city and the elimination of the political favoritism. For budget consciousness with expenditures within budgetary limits, 'A city living within its means'. For an expansion of our recreational facilities with a firm city program to meet the needs of our young growing population."

Abrams continued, "I am ever conscious of the expanding industrial, commercial, and residential potential of our city and give assurance that civic government will keep pace and keep Torrance an 'Award Winning City.'"

He has spent many years actively engaged in civic affairs and has been associated with an impressive list of civic and fraternal organizations which include the Alhambra Civic Assn. and the Torrance Hills Civic Assn. He served as president in both organizations. He is currently president of the Torrance Airport Commission and has also served on the Torrance Traffic Safety Council and the Torrance Citizens Steering Committee. He is a member of the Elks and a director-member of the South Torrance Lions Club.

Abrams was born in Indianapolis, Ind., on Jan. 29, 1905. He pursued his formal education at Evansville, Ind. He met his wife, Lydia, at Buffalo, N. Y. At the present time they live at 2657 Loftyview Dr. They have two married sons and four grandchildren. He has been a resident of Southern California for 29 years.

He has been employed by General Petroleum for the past 19 years where he is now chief surveyor.
