

MISS BEVERLY ANN MOULTRIE
... To Wed Lomitan

Strawn - Moultrie Wedding Is Set for March 28 in Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Moultrie of Salmon, Idaho announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Beverly Ann, to Alfred Lamont (Bud) Strawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Strawn of Lomita. The wedding will take place March 28 in the Idaho Falls Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. A reception will be held at the bride's home. Miss Moultrie is a former student of the Brigham Young University in Provo, where she majored in sociology and minored in speech. Mr. Strawn was graduated from Narbonne High school. He then attended Harbor Junior College for two years. The future bridegroom spent two years as a missionary in the LDS West-Central States Mission. He completes his commercial arts major at Brigham Young this month. The couple plan to make their home in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collins Mark Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collins, 1573 W. 21st St., celebrated 50 years of marriage Monday afternoon at a family dinner party. Three of the couple's five children were on hand to extend best wishes. The two were married March 10, 1908 in Shelbyville, Mo. At the party were daughters, Mrs. Velma Aduddell of Fontana and Mrs. Maurine Moad of Redding. Mr. Cecil Aduddell and children, Diana and Margaret, along with Mr. Ira Moad, and the Moads' son, Herbert and his wife also were present. A son, Clarence, Bayless of Torrance, his wife and chil-

Group Slates Annual Spring Fashion Show

Last minute fittings are in order for the members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, Eta Mu Torrance Chapter, as Thursday, March 27, 8 p.m., is the time of the group's first annual Spring Fashion Show to be held at the Western Club cafe.

The proceeds from the evening's festivities will go to the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation, which aids the mentally retarded children of the entire southern area.

All of the models will look their loveliest in the fashions furnished by the French Boutique Dress Shop, hair stylings by Romero's Hair Stylists and shoe fashions provided by Innes.

Participants in the show will be Violet McCormick, president of the Harbor Area Children's Foundation; Mrs. James Lemon, fashion commentator; Mrs. Ben Benson, sorority president and hostess for the evening and all members of the chapter as hostesses and models.

Many door prizes have been donated by local merchants. Tickets will be available at the door.

TO HOLLYWOOD

Members of Tau Delta Omega recently dined in Hollywood and then went on to see the movie "Sayonara."

Mr., Mrs. Warren Prentiss Now Residing in Gardena

Mr. and Mrs. Warren L. Prentiss are now at home in Gardena following their wedding on Feb. 1 at the Calvary Baptist Church with the Rev. H. E. Kuester officiating. The couple spent their honeymoon in Yosemite.

Mrs. Prentiss is the former Dolores Marie Brancato, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brancato, 1848 W. 154th St. Her father gave her in marriage. Her wedding dress was of Chantilly lace over satin. The lace was decorated with sequins and pearls. A tiara of lace and pearls held the fingertip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Donna Isbell was the maid of honor. She wore pink lace trimmed with pink satin bows and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Misses Judy Dare and Nancy Miller were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were of blue lace and they carried matching bouquets. Cheryl Colovechio was the flower girl wearing white organza with pink trim. Ralph Prentiss served as his brother's best man and ushers were Charles Pumprey, Dan Griffie, Bill Pearson, Ken Kirksey, Bob Walsh and Jack Crespin. Candles were lighted by Pete Brancato and Gary Prentiss.

Mrs. Helen Rees and Mrs. Juanita Anderson played the wedding music. L. J. Fires sang "Will Walk With God," "Because," and the "Lord's Prayer."

Marilyn Orneals registered the 350 wedding guests. Misses Jo Ann Nelson and Sandy Gates assisted. Both of the young people plan to continue their education at El Camino College. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Prentiss, 818 W. 147th St. He has been attending classes at Los Angeles City College and is employed at a market.

Musical Comedy Production To Raise Funds for Temple

The stage of the Campus Theatre at El Camino College will be the setting for a two hour musical comedy show, to be presented by Temple Menorah of Redondo Beach on Saturday, March 29, 8:30 p.m.

The original production, "Menorschapades of 1958" was written, directed and staged by Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Siegel and Mmes. Paul Chaiken and Mel Schumacher. Original lyrics and musical direction are being provided by Mrs. Sydney Siegel.

The story running throughout the show will be set in a booking agent's office with a great variety of talent being woven into this over-all theme. All parts in the show are being taken by Temple members and all funds raised this evening are being turned over for support of the Temple's Religious School.

The four lead roles in the production will be played by Sydney Siegel, Mel Schumacher and Mmes. Paul Chaiken and Mel Schumacher. Some of the specialty acts in the show are as follows: Ed Sokolski, piano stylist; Sol Mann, tenor; Mrs. Allan Freedman, dancer; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman, singing duo.

The show will open with a dancing chorus number featuring the singing of Mrs. Paul Chaiken and the "Temple Sweethearts"; Mmes. Seymour

Bogin, Al Carmona, Harvey Cole, Mel Margulies, Bernard Rivo, Bert Shupps and Ed Sokolski. Choreography by Mrs. Allan Freedman. Another dance number, "The Golden Girls" will feature Mmes. Lee Leeds, David Cargan, William Sloan, Hy Feuerstein and Sam Windsor. Choreography by Mrs. Hal Shanen. Others in the cast are Ezra Wellens, Don Finkelstein, Phil Weinstein, Mike Wald, Paul Chaiken, Henry Rappaport and Mark Bennett. Also Mmes. Sydney Siegel, Mike Wald and Duke Marano. Rabbi Henri E. Front will also have a part in the show.

Business arrangements for the show are being handled by co-chairmen Mrs. Stan Lieber, 401 Avenida de Jose, Redondo Beach, and Mrs. Don Finkelstein, 206 Paseo de Suenos, Redondo Beach. Tickets may be obtained by contacting them or by calling Temple Menorah, 112 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach.
