

UNION WIVES SEEK $$$ TO FIGHT LABEL SUIT

Wanted: money. Mrs. Clara Albert, 1715 W. 234th St.; Mrs. Evelyn Hurn, 2918 Opal St.; Mrs. Nina Rigdon, Bellflower; Mrs. Edna Flink, Mrs. Dorthea Tucker, and Mrs. Lorena Ormsby, all of Long Beach.

Since the suit was filed, the ladies have busied themselves doing all kinds of jobs—sewing, washing, ironing, scrubbing, yard work, and holding dinners—to raise money for their defense.

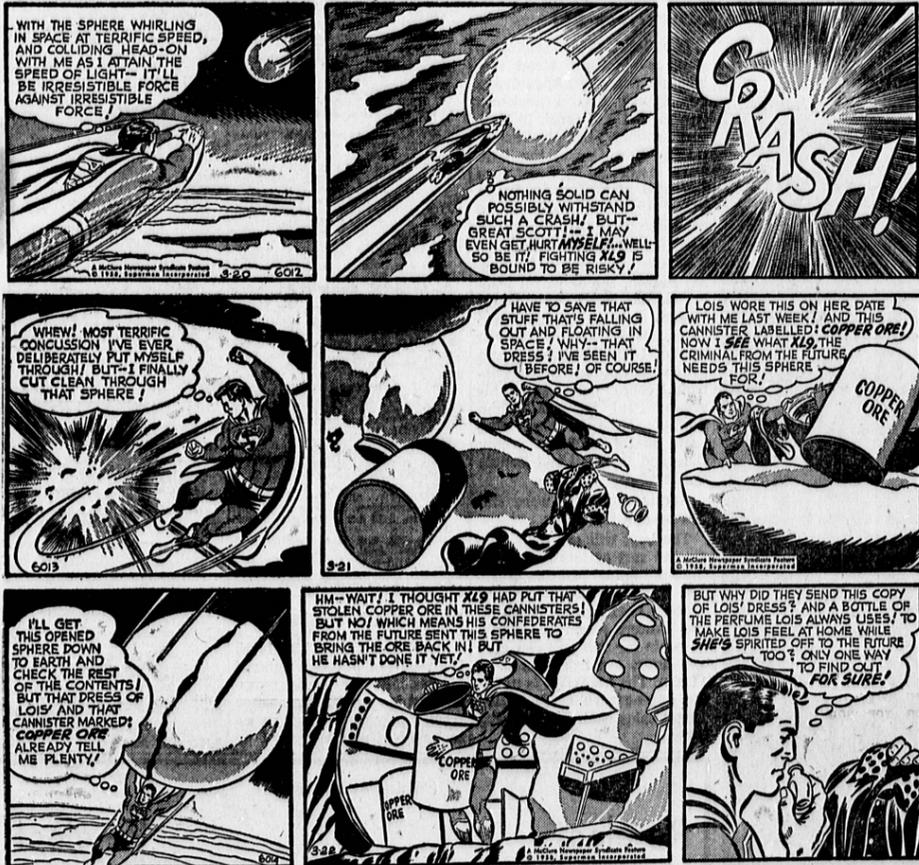

Since the trouble last August, the husbands of the ladies involved haven't had nearly as much work as they used to get, the women reported. Only Mrs. Tucker's husband is working regularly, and he drives to Fontana. The other men work occasionally, they said.

The union was suspended by national headquarters because of internal dissension, with the ladies campaigning against the present leadership.

Defendants Named
Defendants in the trial of the suit, which will begin April 1 in U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, are:
