

THEIR OWN CREATIONS . . . Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club will have the opportunity to see what their own club members have made in the latest spring fashions at their "Spool and Bobbin" show next Wednesday. In a last minute rehearsal are, from left, Mrs. Robert Davis, modeling, Mrs. Frank F. Neff Jr., Mrs. Eugene Lenk, and Mrs. Joseph Boylan, who will do the narration for the show.

Form Salvation Army Auxiliary Wednesday

First organization meeting of the new South Bay auxiliary for the Salvation Army Corps will be held Wednesday, April 23 at noon at the Salvation Army Center, 125 Beryl St., Redondo Beach. Mrs. Robert S. Magness, founder of the Los Angeles auxiliary, has asked Miss Virginia Kurtz to be the auxiliary's first president.

A slate of nominees to be presented at the April meeting has been chosen by a committee composed of Meses. Bernice S. Venable, Lee Blanchard, John Renke, and Albert Bernardo.

Officers will be installed on May 21 at the center by Commissioner Samuel Hepburn.

On the membership and reservation committee are Meses. Al Lukes, Keith Donelson, J. Russel Shea, Raymond Gorsuch, Stewart Betsinger, W. Greenshaw, C. E. Sneary, Chris Bersticker, Keith Ackman, Jess Hansen, Glen Moore, Dorothy M. Austin, Lt. George Hansen, Robert S. Magness and Miss Mona Hansen.

The new auxiliary faces a large problem in their welfare work, due to unemployment in that area. The Redondo Corps is the clearing house for the South Bay area. Supplies are low, Lt. Hansen said, there is a need for canned and fresh milk, tea, coffee, canned meats and a great need for baby clothes. Those wishing to help may call the Salvation office or may leave any supplies at the center in Redondo. Donations will be picked up.

Membership money paid to the auxiliary will be turned in to the corps for its work. The ways and means committee of the auxiliary will supply money for the running of the auxiliary.

A charter of the first auxiliary in the South Bay area will be presented to Lt. George Hansen, with the names of all charter members on it, which will be placed in the office of the corps.

Sandoval - Almaraz Vows Are Exchanged at St. Margaret's

Miss Theresa Marie Sandoval daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roman M. Sandoval, 1904 W. 248th St., Lomita, exchanged her wedding vows with Albert Joseph Almaraz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Almaraz, of Gardena, at a 9 o'clock nuptial mass last Saturday morning at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita.

Mr. Sandoval escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace. The gown was designed with a jeweled neckline, fitted lace bodice and a bouffant skirt with a panel of lace ruffles down the back. Her illusion veil was held by a tiara and she carried white orchids and carnations.

Miss Patricia Greer was maid of honor. She wore yellow net over taffeta and carried white carnations. Bridesmaids were Meses Delores Sandoval and Marta Smith. Their gowns were of lilac net and their bouquets were of carnations.

Cindy Greer, in yellow net, was the flower girl and Ricky Teran carried the rings.

Richard Hejlik was best man and ushers were Steve Peters and Robert Almaraz.

The Rev. Patrick Shelly officiated at the marriage and the nuptial music was played by Mrs. Mary Butterfield. Frank Algarme was the soloist. A breakfast for the immediate families and a reception for the 300 wedding guests followed at the parish hall.

The couple are now residing at 15416 Van Ness, Gardena. The bride was graduated from St. Anthony's High School. Her husband is a graduate of Serra High. He is now attending El Camino College where he is class president.

MRS. ALBERT ALMARAZ . . . Spring Bride Stanford's Photo

Fiestadores 'Sea' Dance Saturday Eve

Fantasies of the sea will be exploited when Las Fiestadores Dance Club holds its monthly affair next Saturday evening at Caprino's. Invitations in the mail this week are done in a clever "Sea" motif. Gene Ware's combo will furnish the music for dancing which begins at 9 p.m.

A pre-dance party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones, 811 Elm St. from 8 until 9 p.m. On the committee with the Joneses are Dr. and Mrs. Philip Halloran and Messrs. and Meses. M. C. Richardson, and Ralph Rugraff.

At the dance the following new members will be introduced Messrs. and Meses. Joe Helphand, Robert Sleeth Jr., Johnny Johnson and Dr. and Mrs. James K. Lees.

Attire for the evening will be informal. The committee has planned several clever "mixer" dances.

Patricia Turkmany Becomes Bride of John L. Studebaker

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, Miss Patricia Turkmany, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Turkmany, 1621 Hickory Ave. walked down the aisle of Nativity Catholic Church last Saturday afternoon at 2 to plight her marriage promises to John L. Studebaker, son of Mrs. W. Studebaker, 5519 Atlantic Blvd., Maywood.

The church chancel was decorated with white wicker baskets filled with white blossoms against standards holding white candles.

Mr. Turkmany escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a round neckline outlined with seed pearls. The long V shaped torso joined a full skirt of lace. The back pannier was of pleated nylon ruffles and lace which cascaded into a chapel train. Her veil was secured by a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Dianne Powers was the bride's only attendant. She wore a poudre blue chiffon gown and carried pink carnations.

Bob Moore stood as best man and ushers were Bob Buzan and Don Studebaker.

The Rev. Thomas Glynn officiated at the marriage and the nuptial music was played by Mrs. M. McConologue.

The 100 guests were entertained at a reception in the parish hall. Guests were registered by Janice Dabbs and Carol Cook. After a short honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Maywood.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's Academy in 1957. Her husband, a Paramount High graduate, is employed as an electrician.

MRS. JON L. STUDEBAKER Benny Kaye Photo

Torrance Herald Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

APRIL 17, 1958

TORRANCE HERALD

Nine

Spool and Bobbin Show Wednesday

"Sewing Symphony" will be the theme of the annual Spool and Bobbin Show to be staged by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club next Wednesday evening at 8 at the clubhouse. Special guests for this affair will be the Senior Woman's Club.

Garments made by club members will be modeled by them and their children. A variety of styles from play wear to evening clothes will be shown. The new chemise look will highlight this year's style parade.

Mrs. Robert Davis is chairman of the show and Mrs. Joseph Boylan will be the narrator. Mrs. Frank Neff Jr., and Miss Carol Wyatt will be in charge of the decorations. Mrs. Richard T. Brundin will take care of the sound and lighting.

Models for the affair are Meses. K. M. Boulter, W. E. Starr, William Sturgis, Phillip

L. Hoffman, Dale E. Cote, Jack C. Dean, James Wilkes, Edward D. Aiken, Robert Davis, Robert J. Petrini, Ray G. Lires, Robert Eipper, D. E. Moore, Robert Schooley, Milton Younken, J. G. Louvier, Douglas Horlander, C. Albert Smith, and P. A. Lisman.

Children modeling will be Belinda Boulter, Jeannette Sturgis, Pamela, Paula and Dolie Hoffman, Jill Dean, Jenny Lynn Davis, Michelle and Danielle Musick.

Mrs. Edwin Hatter, chairman, and her committee will serve refreshments.

Local Woman Named to District B&PW Office

Mrs. Virginia Beck, of Torrance, was installed as Sierra Mar district B&PW recording secretary at the convention held last Friday and Saturday at the Huntington Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena.

The Torrance club again this year won the "leadership trophy" competing with 46 other clubs. Another honor was third place for their article on "Bosses Night" appearing in a February issue of the Torrance Herald. For this recognition the club was presented a citation.

The installation was conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Ford, first state vice president.

On April 21 at the Club Alondra, 16400 Prairie Ave. the local club will hold its installation of officers. An open house will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Betty Massie, 1725 Iris St., from 7 until 7:45 p.m. Installing the new officers at the dinner meeting will be Mrs. Gertrude Baker, new district president.

On May 4, Mrs. Muriel Whitling will be installed as secretary-treasurer of the Harbor Section, B&PW, at the Lakewood Country Club.

May 24 is the date of the first district meeting beginning at 9 a.m. A training and planning meeting for officers and chairmen will be held in the afternoon.

MRS. VIRGINA BECK . . . District Officer

The Torrance club's next business meeting is set for May 5, 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers at the city hall.

PLANNING A MINSTREL . . . Black face, top hats and white gloves is conversation for members of the Waleria Business Women's Club as plans get under way for a Minstrel and Variety Show, June 7. Getting out letters and planning scripts are from left, Mrs. Louise Bigelow, Mrs. Warren Cutting, seated, Meses. Bert Levy, John Iwata and Jack Brown.

Miss Harris Receives Compliment

Spring blossoms decorated the home of Miss Julie Rhone, 1019 Beech Ave., on Friday evening when she gave a bridal shower for Miss Jeannette Harris, who will be married in June.

The party was given during spring vacation and the guest list included a number of co-eds here for Easter.

The evening was spent visiting and the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Edward Rhone, served refreshments.

Bringing gifts for the future bride's kitchen were Meses. Dacre Reed, A. Henderson, Marvin Harris, Carrol Chapman, Edward Rhone, Betsy McPhee, Ronnie Junior. Others were Meses Shirley Reed, Mickey Van Deventer, Jill and Sally Moore, Ann Flourney and Betty Essa.

TO ESCONDIDO

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt and daughter, Jo Ann, spent the weekend in Escandido with Mrs. Eisenbrandt's mother, Mrs. H. J. Schauer.

Waleria Business Women Working on Variety Show

Talent from the area is being rounded up by the Waleria Business Women's Club for their coming Minstrel and Variety Show. The coordinating committee members, Meses. John Iwata, Alvin Schneider, Maze Moton and Jack Brown have already outlined the variety acts and the minstrel show is in rehearsal.

On Saturday, June 7, at the Waleria School cafeteria, prominent business leaders will be shedding their every day roles to take their places as black-faced comedians, hula dancers, end men, musicians, stage hands, singers and various types of entertainers.

Miss Waleria and her court of princesses will be featured in an Hawaiian act with a "Hukilau" and "Luau" with authentic music to inspire them.

Committees appointed for this event are: tickets, Mrs. Warren Cutting and Mrs. Fred Stevens; publicity, Meses. Bert Levy and Loring Bigelow; hostess, Mrs. Wilmet Labit and Duane Nansel; ushers, Mrs. Ernest Thiras and Don Matthews; make-up, Eve Wilson and Edith Pendleton.

Patricia Hicks' Engagement Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon M. Hicks, 25615 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to James Allen Jones, of Huntington Park.

The bride-elect is a graduate of St. Anthony's High School, Long Beach, class of 1957. She is presently employed as a stenographer for the Architectural Division of the Los Angeles County Engineer Department.

The benedict-elect is a graduate of Emmett High School, Emmett, Idaho. He served with the United States Navy, and is presently attending Harbor Junior College, where he is majoring in accounting and business administration.

Plans are in progress for a June 7 wedding.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Marvin McCabe entertained her club last Wednesday evening at her home 1620 Greenwood Ave. The evening was spent playing bridge with the first and second prizes going to Mrs. Don Anderson and Mrs. Ray Flagg.

After the games, the hostess served refreshments. Those attending were Meses. Cele Hogan, Leone Murphy, Wesley Megow, Fred Hilton, Joe Cannon, Al Snyder, Flagg and Anderson. Mrs. McCabe will entertain the club in three weeks.

SERVE BREAKFAST

The Women's Society of the Waleria Community Methodist Church, sponsored by the Ruth Circle, are serving a pancake breakfast Saturday, 7:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Everyone is invited.

ATTEND EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Van Deventer went to Barstow to attend the wedding of Miss Jo Matthis which took place Saturday afternoon at the Marine Base Chapel. Sunday they attended a buffet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Deventer honoring their son, Stan, his fiancee and her parents.

(Continued on Page 10)

Lomita Club Meets Friday

The Lomita Branch of the California National Puchsia Society will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow, 8 p.m., in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper, 25338 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

Ralph Chacon will speak on general gardening and all home gardeners are invited to attend. Prizes and refreshments will be offered.

Joan Roscoe, Bride-elect, Is Honored

A heart-shaped cake inscribed with the names "Joan and Bob" was the centerpiece on the dining table when Miss Joyce Noone entertained at a bridal shower for Miss Joan Roscoe.

Miss Roscoe will be married to Robert De Foe on May 3 at the Nativity Catholic Church.

The Noone home at 2763 Onrado was festive in the pink and white colors for the party. Bouquets of pink and white blossoms flanked the cake.

Several appropriate games were played after which the honoree opened her gifts.

The hostesses served refreshments to the following: Meses. Betty Newberg, Jeanne Nilson, Helen Morris, Betty Noone, Ellen Daggett, Betty Lisoni, Elna Roscoe, Charlotte Medina, Shirley Anderson, Juanita Smith, T. Karafotas, Bessie Jenkins, Evelyn Noone, Arlene Sheehan, Grace Roscoe.

Also, Meses Barbara Moore, Sally Anderson and Cheryl Sheehan.

MRS. C. D. BROWNFIELD . . . On Her Wedding Day Portrait by Seeman

Brunker-Brownfield Nuptials Solemnized

At the candlelighted flower-banked altar in Nativity Catholic Church last Saturday morning at an 11 o'clock nuptial High Mass Miss Grace Brunker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick H. Brunker, 1735 W. 234th, exchanged her wedding vows with Curtis Daniel Brownfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Brownfield of Seattle, Wash.

Radiant in her wedding gown of silk peau de soie and tulle, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. The gown had an off-shoulder neckline and a fitted bodice. A scalloped over-skirt of silk peau de soie fell over a layer of tulle. Alencon lace appliques adorned the waist line and the scallops. Her illusion veil fell from a pillbox of lace and pearls and the bridal bouquet was a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Corrella Brunker was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a deep pink silk chiffon gown and carried delicate pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Pauline Becker and Mrs. Marian Miller were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were also of the pink silk chiffon and their bouquets were of pink carnations.

Little Barbara Moffitt, wearing a floor-length white taffeta gown with a pink cummerbund, was the flower girl. The rings were carried by Michael Rice.

William O'Day performed the duties of best man and ushers were James Brownfield and William McCarthy.

The Rev. Joseph K. McArdle, (Continued on Page 10)