

Tweedy at Meeting
John A. Tweedy, vice president of Southwest Savings, attended the annual Branch Operations Conference, sponsored by the California Savings and Loan League, last week end in San Francisco.

CALVARY BAPTISTS TO EXCHANGE MINISTERS

Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will feature guest speakers both morning and evening. At the duplicate services, 8:30 and 11 a.m. Dr. James Martin, pastor of the Chevy Chase Baptist Church of Glendale will fill the pulpit, while the pastor of Calvary, the Rev. H. Earl Kuester speaks at Chevy Chase Church.

This pulpit exchange is in observance of Church Extension Sunday, a project of the Southern California Baptist State Convention and the Los Angeles City Baptist Mission Society. The new "baby" churches of the Los Angeles area, of which Calvary Baptist Church is one, are exchanging pastors with the older established churches.

In the evening at 7:30, Dr. A. G. Downing, executive secretary of the Southern California Baptist Convention will bring pictures and a lecture on his recently completed round the world tour of American Baptist Mission.

The regular monthly meeting of the Christian Education Workers' Conference will be held Monday evening. The theme will be "Summer Activities." All youth and children who have signed up for camp at 1000 Pines are invited for a dedication service led by Mrs. Borrella Dunagan, camp chairman. Mrs. Sarah Fandy will give a demonstration of a project which will be used in the Vacation Church School, July 7 to 18.

GUEST TO SPEAK AT NARBONNE

The Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church of Lomita will hear guest speaker James Armour speak at all three services Sunday. Mr. Armour was licensed to preach by the Lomita congregation. Word has been received by the local church that their new Minister of Music and Education, Ed Isbell, will begin his work in Lomita the last of June. The affirmative answer to the church call was given this past week.

The Pastor, Robert A. Wells, will leave this week to attend the Southern Baptist Convention which meets in Houston, Texas. Some 15,000 convention messengers are expected to attend the convention, representing some 31,000 churches. On Saturday night the young people of the church will stage a "Hillbilly Night" in the Youth Building.
