Blue League Slo-Pitch
National Blues took on the Torrance Teachers Friday at Torrance Park and came out on the winning side by downing the teachers 8-3.

Al Tippy, in getting two for three at the plate, included a home run in the hit column. Things were pretty even, with the Blues leading 4-3 until the final inning when four Blue runs scored.

It took the Elks Club until the seventh inning to subdue a hard fighting Fire Dept. "B" team that finally went down for the count 6-5.

Bob Kastrop, Jim Williams, Tony Alonge and Harlan Woods scored in the final inning. Al Salcido was the heavy batter for the losers, getting three for four tries.

The Legion team strangled the Civitan Club 6-1 in a lopsided contest Thursday evening. Bob O'Caïn and Sam Inermil both scored twice for the victors.

H. Shigekuni was the lone scorer for the Civitan entry and he also got two of the six hits allowed by O'Caïn.

Black League Slo-Pitch
Nice pitching by Bill Slo-necker of the Fire Dept. "A" team, held the North Torrance Lions Club to six hits and only one run as the firemen emerged on the winning side of a 5-1 tilt Thursday.

Stan Sellers scored a four-bagger for the winners and Jim Wass gathered two doubles. Jack Holt's triple in the fourth sent Tim Box in, for the lone Lions score.

In a tight fracas Friday, the Christian Men's team took Columbia ERA 3-2 as Ray Stewart aided the winners on the mound. John Gilmer was tagged with the loss.

Bill Parker and Don West both had two or three at the plate for the winners while Steve Resetar and John Fernandez scored the lone runs for Columbia.

Local 1135 took full measure of the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen Friday evening as the final score stood at 13-5. The Sportsmen were never in the race as the union team sent six runners across home plate in the first inning.

Hank Behrens and Bill Hayes hit home runs for the Sportsmen who had a four-run rally in the sixth.

Bluebirds In 13-9 Victory

Fresh from a 13-9 victory last Sunday, the Torrance Bluebirds will take on the Gardena Aztecas Sunday at Gardena, 159th St. and Normandie Ave., 2 p.m.

The locals walloped the Los Angeles Zacs in a free swinging contest here at Torrance Park last week. Jim Murphy had a perfect day at bat getting three hits including a home run, in three times at bat.

Larry Roy accredited himself with three hits in four tries. The Birds sent four runners across home plate in the first and again in the eighth inning to completely overpower the visiting semi-pro squad.

Jerry McIvaine twirled for the locals while Cervantes was tabbed with the loss.

Bucky Kuhn, manager of the Birds, yesterday announced his team will play in the newly formed American League. In addition to the Aztecas, other semi-pro aggregations entered will be the Pacific Toros, Los Angeles Coasters, Los Angeles Tigers and the Aguilas.

The Bluebirds' won their league last year and went on to place fifth in Southern California competition.
