Great Western Dairy Rodeo Set Saturday

One of the fine rodeo fields of the year is shaping up for the first annual Great Western Dairy Rodeo, set next Saturday and Sunday afternoon, June 21, 22, at the Great Western Exhibition Building.

The site is located just off the Santa Ana Freeway at the intersection of Atlantic Blvd.

recruit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cordova, 3613 W. 172nd St.

Carlos Acosta, high school airman recruit, son of Mrs. Eloisa Hernandez, 2053 Del Amo Blvd.

Bill Holland, high school seaman recruit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McCray, 1121 Cranbrook Ave.

Acosta and Holland graduated from Torrance High School this month and enlisted under the "Buddy Program." They will go through training together and come home on 14 days leave at the same time after training.

Breakfast Held For Members of Club

The Girls' Athletic Club at Stephen M. White Junior High School had its semi-annual award breakfast June 12.

Under the presidency of Adeleta Modica, a graduating A9, the theme "Circus-Time" was carried out. Decorations were furnished by each class from the B7 to the A9 with Ann Morioka acting as general decorations chairman. The award for the most unusual decorations went to the A9 class whose chairman was Mary Johnson.

Donna Hazel, an A8, was chairman of the entertainment committee and presented three acts in the "Side Show." They were: "Sapphire, the Wonder Horse" with Barbara Frieling, B9, the trainer, and Annette Starcher and Carol Hiatt, playing the role of "Sapphire."

Betty Broatch, A8, sang a song from "Oklahoma." Cheryl Banks, A8, narrated a fashion show showing the latest in chemises and sack dresses and featuring many notables. The Girls Vice Principal, Jo Chamberlain,

Mrs. Clara Vironda, was the "Main Attraction" and spoke to the girls on setting the standards in behavior and clothes for the school. Awards were given to all girls who have been active in the Girls' Athletic Club.

Newly elected officers were announced: president, Rosemary Mahaffey; vice president, Cheryl Banks; second vice president, Ann Morioka; secretary, Donna Hazel, treasurer; Betty Lou Broatch; Chaplain, Susan Chambers; sports chairman, Marsha Pfeiffer; publicity, Joyce Ice; Special events,
