YOUR PROBLEMS by Ann Landers

"This Is Your Son NOT Football"

Dear Ann: I divorced my husband three years ago. He was so cruel there was no other way to keep my sanity. I won custody of our son after a disgraceful court battle. He even perjured himself to get the boy, but it didn't work.

Last year I married a wonderful man. I was blissfully happy, until three months ago, when my husband told me that every time he looks at my son he's reminded of my first marriage and it kills him. (The boy is an image of his father I admit.)

He says our marriage can't last if I insist on keeping this boy around. He knows my first husband has been trying desperately to get his son back and he wants me to give him up.

I'm expecting a baby very soon and my husband says the new child will make up for the other one. I love my husband and I don't want to lose him. Please help me. I'm miserable.—VY.

Dear Vy: How long do you think you'll continue to love your husband when the realization hits that he made you give up your son? Don't be a fool. This man saw the boy before he married you, didn't he?

And what does he mean the marriage can't last if you insist on "keeping the boy around". This is your son, not an old football that he's talking about.

The new baby will not blot out the memory of your first born. Tell your husband you refuse to give up your boy and he'd better get used to the idea.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a woman who

Sydney Young Now Mrs. W. T. Roberts

Baskets of white blossoms standing against standards holding white candles decorated the chancel of the First Methodist Church last Sunday afternoon at four o'clock for the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Sydney Young, daughter of Mrs. Emily Young, 1820 Middlebrook Rd. and William Toney Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts of Wilmington.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Arno Ouwendyk at the organ played a prelude of nuptial music and accompanied Lloyd Jones who sang "O Promise Me", "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Heading the bridal entourage was a bevy of bridesmaids wearing poudre blue taffeta gowns with matching hats and carrying cascade bouquets of blue carnations. They were Miss Becky Mitchell, Mrs. Edward McCrary, and Miss Martha Simpson.

Next in line was Miss Diann Shanahan, maid of honor. She also wore a poudre blue taffeta gown with a matching hat. Her bouquet was of poudre blue carnations.

Little Julie Wiggins, three-year-old cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Her frock was of white organdy over poudre blue taffeta.

Then came the bride on the arm of her uncle, D. T. Baldwin. She was regal in her wedding gown of silk organza over taffeta. The fitted embroidered bodice had short sleeves and seed pearls outlined the scoop neckline. The full skirt fell into a sweep train. The silk illusion bridal veil fell from a pearl tiara and the bridal bouquet was of white stephanotis and orchids.

Stuart G. Blankenship was best man and ushers were David McNary, Richard N. Salmonson and William J. Sandridge.

The Rev. John Taylor, pastor, officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the church and Mrs. David McNary registered the guests.

The couple are spending a honeymoon in Las Vegas. They will establish a Torrance home.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High school, El Camino Junior college and Long Beach State College. Her husband is a graduate of Banning High school and El Camino.

Club Party

The Breakfast Club gathered at Torrance Park last Sunday evening for a picnic supper after which they went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Morse for a business session followed by cards and other games.

In the group were Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Bever, Fay Parks, Jack Miller, Abe Shriner, Arch Lewis, Dave Jones, Stan Morse.

Others were John Fess and his guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bradley.

Pool Party

Enjoying the swimming pool at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Beeman on El Prado last Sunday afternoon were Dr. and and Mrs. George Peeke and son; Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Halloran and children; and Dr. and Mrs. William Young and children.

Attends Meeting

Mrs. L. A. McCoy attended the Marina executive committee meeting of the California Federation of Women's Club held Tuesday at the Del Mar Hotel in Santa Monica.

Hall-Harris Vows Recited In Dominquez Church Rites

At 8 o'clock last Friday evening in the Dominguez Methodist Church, Miss Linnie Ruth Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hall, 2671 Jefferson Ave., Dominguez exchanged her wedding vows with Robert L. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Harris of Long Beach, formerly of Torrance.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a Chantilly lace gown over a ruffled net skirt. The fitted bodice had long sleeves and a Queen Anne collar. A Juliet cap of lace and pearls secured the illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Cecil Ray Harris was the matron of honor. She wore a yellow satin gown with a chiffon overskirt and carried rubrum lilies.

Bridesmaids were Misses Donna Eilers and Audrey Weitknecht. Miss Eilers wore pink satin and Miss Weitknecht wore blue satin. Their bouquets were also of lilies.

Patricia Louise Tubias, in white dotted swiss, was the flower girl and Freddie Bill carried the rings.

Cecil Ray Harris was the best man and ushers were Ronald Hall, Jim Tuiess, Harry Schlitz and Gary Von Sted.

The Rev. Ray Brock conducted the marriage. Miss Linda Morphew was the organist and Darla Baker sang.

A reception was held in the church hall and the couple left for Shaver Lake for a honeymoon. Their address will be 25346 Oak St., Lomita.

The bride was graduated from Banning High school and her husband is a graduate of Torrance High.

Sobada Club Dance Next Saturday Eve

Sobada Dance club will stage its July dance Saturday evening at the new Elks club in Redondo. This will also be Guest Night. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m. with Tom Quevy and his orchestra furnishing the music.

A "Baseball" theme will be used in decorating. The committee planning the affair is comprised of Messrs. and Mmes. Clifford Trezise, Tom Coleman, and Roland Petrat.

Week End Guests

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meyers and daughters, Cindy and Katey, of San Diego. After a barbecue patio dinner, a trip to Disneyland and boating at Yacht Harbor were enjoyed.

NO SUMMER RECESS . . . Torrance Memorial Hospital auxiliary continues its works of kindness for patients at the hospital right on through the summer months. This is especially signified in the Hospital Library Cart project, which has been handled by Mrs. William Crooker (right) during the past year. Here Mrs. Crooker is turning her job over to Mrs. James Kimble for the coming year as they serve Wolfgang Peterson, patient. The cart is wheeled through the wards loaded with current magazines and periodicals so that patients may have their choice.
