Newsmen Plan Mexico Trip On Week End

Members of Southern California's press, radio, and TV industries will visit Ensenada and nearby points of Baja California during a two-day goodwill tour linking the two Californias Aug. 16 and 17.

John G. L. Crain, president of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn. and public relations chairman for the Los Angeles Transportation Club, will be the city's official representative on the trip.

In a cavalcade of chauffeured Renaults under the guidance of screen starlets and Latin vogue columnists, Inez and Cecilia Pedroza, the contingent will be met at the border by Ruben Padilla, Baja California's director of tourism, and officially welcomed by Tijuana motorcycle police escort.

GOVERNOR BRAULIO Maldonado and civic officials of Ensenada will host newsmen Sunday morning at a "Town Meeting" brunch at the Montemar. Mexican press personnel will present a "Hands Across the Border" welcome.

The event will be broadcast over Ensenada's radio station with Mayor Santos B. Cota extending "Bienvenidos" to the delegates.

Crain, who is taking the trip on behalf of the Transportation Club, was named the city's official representative by the council Tuesday night.

Olympic Diving Champs To Headline Aquacade

An aquacade headlining Olympic diving champions Pat McCormick and Joaquin Capilla has been set for Los Coyotes Country Club at Bellehurst Sunday afternoon.
