Summer Arts, Craft Class To Open at Center June 22

An Arts and Crafts program for all ages is due to begin June 22 at the Arts and Crafts Center, 1511 Cravens Ave., according to the Torrance Recreation Dept. Registration is open now.

The series will be previewed by an exhibit scheduled for 3 until 5 and 7 until 9 p.m. on June 19 at the Center.

The opening program will be Indian Lore crafts due to start June 22. Participants will study the jewelry, costumes and dances of the redmen. A class for youngsters from 6 to 9 years of age is set for 9 a.m. while one for children 9 thru 12 years of age is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Four, two week classes are planned. There is a $1.50 charge including the cost of materials.

7:30 p.m. Students may take their choice of various crafts such as copper enameling, leather working, silk screening, etc. The workshop fee is $2 for eight sessions or 50 cents a session plus materials.

VARIOUS crafts will be taught to teen-agers during 7 p.m. classes that start Thursday, July 9. Fee is $1.50 for 6 lessons or 50c a lesson including materials.

Registration for any of the classes is possible by phoning the Center, FAirfax 8-9624.

Erika Muhl, a graduate of the University of Berlin, is director of the center. Staff members are Brent Moser and Amy Ferrone. Moni Gillett is a guest art instructor.

BEGINNING June 23 will be classes in puppetry and children's art.

Meeting Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays the puppetry classes will be conducted in two week sessions at 1 p.m. for 6 thru 9 year olds and 3 p.m. for youngsters from 9 thru 12 years of age. The fee is $1.50 including the cost of all materials.

Three, three week children's art classes are planned for Tuesday and Thursdays at 9 a.m. for 6-9 year olds and at 10:30 for 9 thru 12 year olds. The six lesson fee is $5.

THE ANCIENT art of mosaics will be taught to adults at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays starting June 23. There is a fee of $2 for the eight-week long class with the cost of materials extra.

An Omnibus workshop for adults will begin June 25 at
