New Pharmacy Opens Doors

Leo Brodsky, registered pharmacist, is celebrating the grand opening today of his new pharmacy at 182nd and Arlington Ave. adjacent to Fox Market.

To be operated as Leo's Pharmacy, the new store was established by Brodsky after a survey of the area indicated a need for such an outlet. A complete line of prescription drugs, pharmaceutical supplies, and cosmetics will be in stock.

Miss Ruby Bernard of Torrance will be in charge of cosmetics and will carry a full line of beauty aids. Terrific savings on drug merchandise plus prizes and gifts will be offered during the opening celebration, Brodsky said.

A graduate of Purdue University, in Lafayette, Ind., Brodsky was a manager for a large Southland drug chain and for the past six years has operated his own store in Inglewood.

The program is under the supervision of Walter Rittamel, organist and choir director of Ascension Church.

Adventist Church Members Slate Annual Camp Meeting

Members of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church are completing registration this week for the 56th annual camp meeting of the church's Southern California Conference which begins at Lynwood, June 25.

Pastor Glenn L. Goffar said local church members are completing their registration for living facilities at the 40-acre camp meeting site at 4100 Imperial Hwy, Lynwood, for the 10-day religious convocation.

"Many of our members expect to attend most of the sessions of the camp meeting," said Pastor Goffar. "Some will be staying at the convocation site throughout the entire session."

Pastor Goffar said members of his church who choose to live at the convocation site have a choice of living in family-sized tents provided by the church, in their own private tents, or in mobile homes. A number of church members, the clergyman said, will take their annual vacation time to attend the religious session which will feature addresses by top world, regional, and local leaders of the Adventist Church.

are they switching to Great Western Savings?

You don't have to be a whiz at arithmetic to understand that 4% is one-third more than 3%. And at Great Western, your money currently earns 4% a year — the highest rate you can get on insured savings. Another thing, that high interest is compounded or paid — not just once a year, or even twice a year — but four times a year. Within three months you are earning interest on your interest, as well as on your original investment. That makes your savings add up in a hurry. You can open your Great Western account in no time at all. Mail us your check, money order or your present passbook — or just stop in at the nearest Great Western office and start your account.
