First YMCA Summer Camp Trip Starts on Saturday

Twenty-five excited teenagers will depart Saturday at 5 a.m. on the first of 11 Torrance YMCA Camps this summer. This first trip, the Shadow Lake Base Camp, will introduce Torrance youngsters to the rugged beauty of the High Sierras.

The local YMCA group will make its base camp along the shores of the San Joaquin River, near Devil's Postpiles and Rainbow Falls. After getting acclimated to the area, the boys will back-pack to Shadow Lake, Iceberg Lakes, Lake Ediza and the crags of the Minarets.

The boys will sleep under the stars, cook over open fires, learn to get along comfortably in the wilderness, fish, hike, swim and view the many wonders of God which abound in the area.

Youth Band to Play in Bowl Again Saturday

The Torrance Area Youth (Cadet) Band will make its third trip in eight days to the Hollywood Bowl Saturday, appearing with seven other youth bands in the Annual Youth Band Festival.

This past week-end the local group played for Scouting's "Holiday Under the Stars" program, witnessed by around 25,000 spectators. Next Saturday's concert is sponsored by the Youth Band Council of Southern California. The eight youth bands participating won the "right" to perform by virtue of competitions held last October.

Frank DeVot will be the guest conductor for the event and Raymond Burr will be master of ceremonies. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. and admission is free.

Young musicians from the Torrance area who will participate include John Alter, Floyd Ault, Judy Bissell, Dona Black, Thomas Bradbeer, Sinclair Cleveland, Sandra Colby, Jim Dawson, Norman Dow, Dana Dunn, Glen Eden, Chris Edman, Robert Eitel, Terry Farrance, John Friedemann, Danny George, Robert Gill, Larry Graves, Lela Green, Galen Hall, Randy Hester, Mike Hilborn, Frances Hon, Kenneth Johnston, Sam Kamler, Glenn Keehane, Mike Keyes, JoKay Louvier, Jerry Lynd, Frank McCafferty, Al Miller, Harold Montgomery, Keith Nichols, Roger Pearsall, Dee Rader, Bob Remington, Paul Rizzo, Sheryl Sells, Mike Simmons, Mary Titus, Theresa Vita, Richard Woodward, Paul Wright and Patrick Zimpfer.

James Van Dyck, director of the Youth Bands, and Jim Davidson, director of the Torrance Recreation Department's "Fun through Music" program, will accompany the bands to the Bowl and also conduct the massed groups during the night's concert.

EACH DAY will begin with a simple chapel service under the trees, and will conclude with a roaring campfire on the river bank.

The boys who are attending include Gregg Barrett, Dennis Breilein, Jimmy Cassetta, Bruce Clelland, Peter de Turk, Bill Everett, Michael Focha, Gregory Harestad, Harry Horning, Buddy Isbell, Billy McGinnis, Richard McTee.

Others are Stewart Rose, David Stoneberg, Jim Stoneberg, Ronnie Surber, Paul Truair, Roger Unger, Doug Urban, David Welty, Jim White, Neil Christian, Jim Verity, Steve and Victor Corey.

NINE TRAINED YMCA counselors will accompany the boys throughout the adventuresome week.

There is still room for additional boys and girls in several Torrance YMCA trips later in the summer. Younger boys and girls, 6 to 9 years of age, may attend a month-long Day Camp in August; boys or girls 9 to 12 can still register for YMCA Camps Round Meadow or Mozumdar for a week of mountain fun, and teen-age boys and girls can still choose from five exciting caravans and pack trips which have openings for local youth.

Manuel Rivers Studies Engineering at Northrop

Manuel L. Rivers, son of Al Rivers, 1404 W. 128th St., is currently attending college at Northrop Aeronautical Institute in Inglewood. Enrolled in the four-year aeronautical engineering program, Rivers plans to earn the bachelor of science degree in just thirty-six months by attending school 48 weeks a year.

A veteran of the Korean war with service in the United States Army, Rivers is a graduate of Torrance High School.
