

Juniors To Remodel Interior of YMCA

Remodeling of the interior of the Torrance YMCA was selected by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club as its philanthropy for the coming year during an International Night dinner held for husbands of the members at the clubhouse Wednesday evening.

In addition to raising funds for equipment and building necessary repairs, club members will donate their labor in an effort to beautify the Y.

Guest speaker at the husband-night year-end club event was Dr. Wendell Miller, who discussed the problems facing the average Russian citizen and showed colored slides taken during a recent trip behind the Iron Curtain.

Stating that Russia has a "mass inferiority complex," which he attributed to the fact that the Russian way of life and medical facilities are far below those of the United States, Dr. Miller claimed that "Russian achievements in science are one level, and all other phases of life on another."

In keeping with the international theme of the dinner, tables were decorated with models of ancient ships on a sea of green angel hair surrounding a collection of foreign dolls belonging to Belinda Boulter. Mrs. Clayton Lilley was decoration chairman, assisted by Mmes. William Starr, A. R. Felando, Jr., Richard Oliver, John Stokley, and Don Carlson.

An international guest was James Eddine Ben Miled of Tunis, Tunisia, Moslem representative of the Foreign Specialists Program of the International Educational Exchange Service of the United States Dept. of States. Mr. Miled accompanied Mrs. Don Carlson.

Other guests were Mrs. A.F.R. Ewalt and Mrs. R. E. Shaw, co-ordinators of the Senior Woman's Club.

Certificates for highest points for service rendered during the past club year went to Mmes. Joe Boylan, Clifford Trezise, C. L. Briner, James Van Dyck, John Stokley, A. R. Felando, Jr., Elgin Logsdon, Eugene Lenk, Douglas Herlander, and Allen Hofferber.

Cradle Role Featured by Churchwomen

The Women's Christian Service Guild of Lutheran Church of the Resurrection in Hollywood Riviera met Tuesday evening, June 9, at 8 p.m. The program featured the Cradle Roll group, led by the Mothers Club.

A panel discussion, led by Mrs. Knute Fjoslien and supported by Mrs. William Olney, Mrs. Neil Keyes, and Mrs. Keith Crown, dealt with handling of problems in home and school with young children.

Presentation of Cradle Roll certificates was made by Mrs. Dexter Howard, to the new mothers of the year, in an impressive candlelight ceremony. The evening closed with a poem recited by Mrs. Ross Rasmussen, "The Soul of a Child."

AT GIRLS' STATE . . . Jacqueline Urban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Urban of 134 Via Pasquale, has been selected by the Bert S. Crossland unit of the American Legion Auxiliary to represent Torrance at Girls' State, to be held on the Davis campus of the University of California for a week beginning Friday.

HUSBANDS' NIGHT . . . Examining dolls from other nations which carried out the "International Night" theme of a husbands' night dinner of the Torrance Junior Women's Club, held at the clubhouse Wednesday evening, are: Mrs. A. R. Felando, Jr., left, Ed Aiken, center, and Mrs. Anna Aiken, right.

Henrietta Stevens To Wed William Beavers

Mrs. James Henry Stevens of 4113 Sepulveda Blvd. announces the engagement of her daughter, Henrietta, to William Beavers of Redondo Beach. Miss Stevens is the daughter of the late Dr. James Henry Stevens of Jonesboro, Ark., and Mr. Beavers is the son of J. E. Beavers and the late Ida Mae Beavers of Inglewood.

The wedding will take place at Hermosa Beach Church of Christ on June 26.

HENRIETTA STEVENS . . . Engaged

A teacher of social science and mathematics at Perry Junior High School, Miss Stevens is a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Prior to her graduation from Arkansas State College in January, she was president of the social science club on campus and a member of the AWS and PTA. In high school she served on the pep squad and the FHA.

SUMMER JOBS OPEN

Registration of high school students desiring summer employment will be held at the Hide-out Canteen this week under sponsorship of the Dianas. Businessmen and homeowners who have full or part-time jobs available are asked to contact Mrs. Hansfor at FR 5-7511, or Mrs. Roger Gardemann at FR 5-8768.

At Installation Luncheon

Auxiliary Gives Hospital $3200

At an installation luncheon held at the Plush Horse Tuesday, Mrs. Paul Roettger, outgoing president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital, presented Henry Creeger, chairman of the hospital board, with a check for $3200 on behalf of the auxiliary for the purchase of maternity department equipment.

The donation will be used to provide a croupette, two incubators, and complete bed units for the department. Funds for the equipment were earned by the auxiliary during the post club year.

Other members of the hospital staff who were guests of the auxiliary at the luncheon were: Leonard Ensminger, hospital administrator; Mrs. Anderson, hospital superintendent; and Mrs. Kenneth Mathias, maternity supervisor.

Mrs. William C. Boswell was installed as president by Mrs. John Stevens.

Other officers who were seated are: Mmes. H. F. Heinlein, ways and means vice president; William E. Grubbs, program vice president; Ben Smith, membership vice president; William Crooker, recording secretary; Mrs. Basher, corresponding secretary; Dean Virden, treasurer; Robin Bingham, director, and James C. Anderson, director.

Senior Scout Troop

Plans Rummage Sale

Senior Girl Scout Troop 1299, sponsored by the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club, will hold a rummage sale at St. Andrews Episcopal Church parish hall on Engracia St. Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

Household articles and clothing will be featured. The event will be the final effort by the troop to earn money for their forthcoming tour of the United States.

Mothers of Twins Set Installation

Torrance Mothers of Twins Club will conclude its first year of club activity tomorrow with an installation dinner to be held at 7 p.m. at Cigo's, 915 S. Pacific Coast Hwy., San Pedro.

Mrs. D. R. White will assume the duties of president. Other officers to be installed by the outgoing executive board are: Mmes. R. B. Howard, first vice president; G. H. Anderson, second vice president; H. E. Jones, recording secretary; J. R. Adams, corresponding secretary; and W. R. Campbell, treasurer.

During its one-year existence the club has grown to 54 members and contributed funds to the American Cancer Society from proceeds of a spring fashion show.

The installation dinner will be open to prospective members and guests. Twin children of club members will be feted next month at a picnic to be held in El Retiro Park July 26.

HOUSEGUESTS

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 17644 Cranbrook, last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Grissom, of Stillwater, Okla., cousins of Mrs. McVey, who are currently touring Southern California.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"How do people unwind from the social ratrace?"

Dear Ann Landers: We've been married 17 years and have finally reached the financial plateau where we get invited to all the nicest parties in town. Naturally we must reciprocate.

My husband announced last week that he's sick and tired of spending a fortune to entertain people he doesn't give a hoot about. I agree he has a point. We invite most of these people to our home simply because they invited us to theirs. We aren't really friends. We see each other only a few times a year.

How do people unwind from the social rat-race without giving the impression they've gotten high-hat or gone broke?

—WEARY
Dear Weary: When entertaining means spending money you hate to part with, to wine and dine people you don't care about, merely because you must "pay them back"—then it's time to quit.

...The hostess who'd rather be stricken with bubonic plague than stricken from a party list inevitably becomes trapped by her own stupidity.

One "unwinds from the social rat-race" by having the courage to say NO to people they don't care about. The

For Therapy Unit

Water Ballet To Aid Pool Fund

Combining the glamour of a fashion show with the entertainment of a water ballet will be a poolside benefit luncheon to be held tomorrow to raise funds for a pool therapy unit for the Harlan Shoemaker School for Handicapped Children.

"Poolside Fun for Kids Who Can't Run" is the name of the charity event to take place from 12:30 to 4 p.m. at Henry's Yacht Anchorage on Terminal Island. A Hawaiian theme will prevail.

Commentator for the program which will follow a seashore luncheon will be Sabu, the Elephant Boy, of movie fame. South Sea island dancing will precede the water ballet and fashion show.

Hawaiian swimmer Ron Maury, director of aquatics at the Nu-Pike plunge in Long Beach, will direct the water ballet. Mr. Maury has appeared with the Harry Owens, Jan Murray and Toni Arden bands.

Starring in the water ballet will be Joanne Royer Maury, former U. S. indoor and outdoor solo champion and member of the '56 Olympic team; Greta Andersen, winner of the English Channel and two-way Catalina Channel swims and former Olympic star; Jane Maher, Women's Swim Club director; and Chet Prosser, director of Boy Scout and Girl Scout life saving programs.

Featured in the poolside fashion show will be beachwear, afternoon and cocktail dresses and swim togs. Several of the children from the Harlan Shoemaker School will model outfits.

Committee members include: Mmes. Ellen Lundquist and Valerie Jerke, tickets; Orville Owens, decorations; Mae Specht, fashions, Arline Knapp, entertainment; Elizabeth Jordan, food; Lois Erwin, prizes, and Ruth Morrison, models.
