

POLYNESIAN PERFORMER . . . Tani Marsh, exotic island dancer, will be among the headline entertainers to appear at the "Feast of the Islands," authentic Hawaiian luau to be held at the Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance on Sunday, June 28. The public is welcome by advance reservation.

P T A. ACTIVITIES
Wood Evelyn Carr

Wednesday movies, sponsored by the Howard Wood PTA are to be shown following the summer session, at Howard Wood Elementary School Cafeteria, 2250 W. 235th St., beginning June 24 at 1:15 p.m. They will be shown every Wednesday, at this time, for six weeks. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Features to be shown are: June 24, "The Spirit of St. Louis" with James Stewart; July 1, "The Call of the Wild" with Clark Gable; July 8, "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" with Frank Sinatra and Gene Kelly; July 15, "Singing in the Rain" with Gene Kelly; July 22, "So Dear to My Heart" and "Fence Buster"; July 29, "Southern Yankee" with Red Skelton.

Concession stands selling hot dogs, cold drinks and popcorn will be open at 12:35 p.m. Mrs. Ivan Eckersley, ways and means chairman, heads the committee responsible for the arrangements. Assisting were Mmes. C. W. Strahm, Jack Hoy, Paul Braswell, Hiro Muranaka and Mr. R. D. Evans, principal of the school.

Group Honors

Mrs. Sibbing
Mrs. Anton Sibbing of Hawthorne was the guest of honor at the Surprise Night social given by the Ladies of Columbus, Ave Maria Council, in the K. of C. Hall, Hawthorne.

A charter member of this council, Mrs. Sibbing was so honored because of her forthcoming Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Moderator Mrs. Joseph Mark, Hawthorne, arranged a memory test for Mrs. Sibbing starting with a wedding party in two carriages, each drawn by two white horses, in Quincy, Ill., June 23, 1909, and high-lighting events to 1959.

Evelyn Carr school was the scene of gala festivities on the evening of June 11 as the graduating 8th grade class was feted by their 7th grade classmates. Two hundred and eighty students and guests attended a tea given in the gayly decorated breezeway under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Young.

The graduation dance, at which seven former Evelyn Carr students who had transferred to the Yukon school were guests, got under way at 7 o'clock in the cafeteria. The Evelyn Carr PTA furnished corsages for the young ladies. Refreshments were provided by the Eighth Grade Mothers. Some of the mothers who were responsible for the success of the party were Mmes. John Meyn, Philip Brooks, Glenn Blake, John Regan, and Stanley Yocum. The soft drink bar was attended by Ray Hefferan and Stanley Yocum. Mrs. Ray Hefferan, eighth grade representative, expressed appreciation to the exceptional group of parents with whom she worked in presenting the party.

232nd Place

Guest of honor at a recent social gathering was Mrs. William Andreas, retiring president of 232nd Place PTA. A group of board members and guests motored to the Chandelier Restaurant in Bixby Knolls where they enjoyed a fashion show and luncheon. As a token of appreciation for her efforts on behalf of PTA, Mrs. Andreas was presented with a piece of luggage.

Those in attendance for the event with the honoree were Miss Ethel Bromley, principal of 232nd Place School; Mmes. Kenneth Madison, Fred Bassett, Earl Seal, Kenneth Fortney, James Taylor, Paul Martinez, Phillip Gable, and Emmett Walker.

Guests included Mmes. Carl Brooks, Glenn Myers, and Judy Edwards.

Visiting Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Van Deventer are spending this weekend in Santa Barbara with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rehwooldt, who will accompany them to Torrance. Mr. Rehwooldt will go on to San Diego for a two weeks cruise with the U.S. Naval Reserve and Mrs. Rehwooldt will spend the two weeks here with her parents.

To New York

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Van Waggoner and sons, Sammy and Kirt, 1747 Greenwood Ave. will leave by plane June 27 for New York City where Mr. Van Waggoner will attend the International Lions Convention. The family will then go to Detroit to pick up a new car to drive back to California.
