A STATEMENT released this week by Fireman Dick Di-Armitt on behalf of the Fire and Police Joint Wage Committee termed the salary adjustments and 5 per cent pay hike already granted by the councilmen "a step in the right direction," but said the step should be a larger one. Claiming that local fire and police officers will still be $30 lower than Los Angeles city and county levels, the committee asks that city income be
