

Bank Orders Study of Old Civic Auditorium Building

An architectural study of the old Civic Auditorium has been ordered by the Security-First National Bank to determine its adaptability to banking facilities, Security President Lloyd Austin said this week.

The bank is interested in providing complete banking facilities for the fast growing central Torrance area, Austin said. The architects will be in-

To Install New Pastor

Pastor John Lundering will be installed as assistant pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., at 9:30 a.m. services on Sunday. He will also speak at services to be conducted at 8 and 11 a.m.

Born in Austin, Minn., Sept. 18, 1933, the new pastor was graduated from Luther Theological Seminary of St. Paul last month. During a year's internship at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, he served as chaplain to the Home for the Aged and directed the church choir. He was youth director at American Lutheran Church in St. Paul this past year.

A patio reception for the pastor, his wife, Joan, and infant son, Scott Douglas, will be held by the Ladies of the Guild following each of the morning services.
