Rodeo Queen To Be Chosen

Torrance's 1959 Rodeo Queen will be selected at 9 a.m. Monday, according to officials of the Third Annual Rancho Days Celebration. The contest will be held on the Civic Center site. Judging will be based on beauty, ability to ride, and personality, with winner receiving a complete western outfit plus a trophy. Judges will be Dorothy Wilkes; Chief of Police Percy Bennett; Rancho Days General Chairman, Jack Phillips; and Parade Chairman Lt. D. C. Cook.

Navy Airman Ranks Open

Dale Fields, local Navy recruiter whose office is located at 16422 south Vermont Ave. in Gardena, announced this week that he has been assigned a quota for the Navy Airman Program, men applying for this program need not be a high school graduate.

Applicants upon making a qualifying score will be enlisted as an Airman Recruit and after completing recruit training will be assigned to a Naval Aviation School or a unit of the Navy's air-arm where he will receive on-the-job training under the supervision of technicians and men who have experience in all phases of maintaining everything from the fastest jets to the helicopters used in modern warfare.

All assignments in the Air-arm program are on a first come first served basis and no waiting list will be used.
