The Ohio visitors came to California on the El Capitan. Upon their arrival Mr. and Mrs. McCullough took their guests to Olvera Street, where they had lunch, and then on to Forest Lawn where they saw the famous "Last Supper" and the "Crucifixion."

On the second day a tour of Hollywood was made and they attended Art Linkletter's House Party. They also visited the McCulloughs' son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Potter, and were joined by them for dinner in Chinatown.

On the next day the four made the Mission Inn Tour at Riverside and visited Palm Springs. The fourth day was spent at Catalina. The other days of the visit were spent at Knott's Berry Farm, San Diego, Tijuana, Los Angeles and Long Beach.
