WATER DEMAND

About 90 gallons of water per day per person were needed in the U.S. in 1920. Now the average is 145 gallons.

Linda Lee Colbert, editor of the South High school paper, the Sword and Shield, was among twenty journalism students to attend the annual Summer Newspaper Workshop at the University of Southern California School of Journalism.

The six-weeks course which ended Friday was taught by Dan Desfor, assistant to the President of Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, who discussed the publication problems, developing of ideas, copy reading, and make-up and advertising work.

DeMille Aide To Address Los Crusados

Capt. Faud Arif, historian and an associate motion picture director for the late Cecil B. DeMille, will be the guest speaker at the Monday, August 3rd, meeting of the Los Crusados Council of the Knights of Columbus, according to an announcement made by James O'Toole, Grand Knight of Torrance-Redondo Beach fraternal organization.

Arif will describe his experiences during the three and one half years he spent in Egypt and the Middle East in preparation for the filming of "The Ten Commandments." O'Toole also revealed that the annual Council picnic will be held this year at Peck's park in San Pedro on Sunday, August 30th. Stan Jakubowski is in charge of arrangements for the picnic.

The Los Crusados Council quarterly Communion Sunday has been scheduled for 8 a.m. on Sunday, August 30th, at the Church of the Nativity in Torrance.

Obituaries

CAROLYN JONES
Funeral services for Carolyn Jones, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones, of 1915 Santa Rena, San Pedro, were held at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel yesterday with Dr. Richard Seebode of the Torrance Unitarian Church officiating.

The girl, whose father has been principal of Seaside Elementary School here for several years and who was recently promoted by the school district to a higher administrative post, died at Torrance Memorial Hospital Thursday following an illness which began during the Easter Week vacation.

In addition to her parents, Carolyn is survived by two brothers, Allen, 6, and Evan, 13; two uncles, Richard and Gordon Jones; and her grandmother, Mrs. Chris Jones, all of Torrance and Lomita.

Cremation followed yesterday's final rites.

Mr. Osborn, a native of England, had lived in Torrance for 14 years prior to his death here Friday. He was employed as a plant engineer at Southwest Steel Corp., and had formerly served as engineer for U.S. Steel Co. plants and for plants of Bethlehem Steel.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Orwell A. Osborn, of the home address; three sons, John of 1122 Patronella Ave., George of Chicago, and Robert of Johnston, Pa.; and one sister, Mrs. Alice Carter, of England. Eight grandchildren also survive him.

Interment will be in Green Hills Memorial Park.
