

Challengers Hand Teams Seventh Loss

Play continued this past week in the Girls' Softball League, with two games played at McMaster Park on Tuesday night. One was a complete rout, in which the Challengers handed the Teens their seventh straight loss. This time it was to the tune of 35 to 0. The Challengers put the game on ice in the bottom of the first inning, when 21 batters came to bat, scoring 17 runs. This is probably the most one-sided inning played this summer. Two players dominated the "hit parade" for the Challengers. The center fielder, Terry Neldon, collected a single, two triples and scored six runs. Also helping out was a new player, Virginia Burton, who had a perfect night at the plate. She banged out four solid singles, a double, and scored four runs. The winning pitcher was Kathy Reed, who came up with a two-hitter against the Teens.

In the second game the fans were treated to a better played, closer contest. The Mishaps hung on to defeat the Pythons, 11 to 9. It was all Mishaps until the fourth inning. At this time they led, 11 to 4. Then the Pythons began to get some hits, plus some walks, and came very close to tying up the old ball game. The Mishaps' center fielder, Debbie Brinkhurst, hit the only extra base hit of the evening when she banged out a home run with two on in the second inning. The winning pitcher was Aggie Easchief and the loss is charged to Mary Reasbeck.

THURSDAY night the first-place Esabs continued their winning ways by defeating the Pythons, 16 to 2. The Esabs banged out 14 hits, four of them for extra bases. Two home runs, one by the left fielder, Millie Dryer, and one by the pitcher, Judy Clements, accounted for four runs. The losing pitcher was Mary Reasbeck.

On the same night the Vandals took care of the Spartettes, 12 to 2, behind the two-hit pitching of Dot Nelson. Meanwhile, the Vandals were banging out 11 hits off Jeannie Woodard. Dot Nelson also had a perfect night at the plate, getting two singles and a triple. Something seems to have happened to the Vandals' first sacker, Dot Searles. Dot has now gone hitless in three games.

Shrine Gridiron Struggle Set For Next Friday

Next Friday evening the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum will be the scene of the eighth annual renewal of the Shrine Football Classic. The South figures to get back on the winning track with such great signal callers as San Diego's Ezell Singleton and Raul Disarufino of L. A. Cathedral.

The North also has a couple of fine quarterbacks in Bill Munson of Lodi High School and Daryle Lamonia, the top North signal caller. Between these four quarterbacks are nine letters for football and several other sports. Two of them are athlete of the year from their respective schools.

Dave Levy who coached the Long Beach Poly team to the CIF southern section championship will coach the South gridders while Larry Siemering of Santa Cruz drew coaching chores for the North. Bill Gott from Stagg, Stockton, will assist Siemering while Levy will be assisted by Frank Nobbe of Fremont, L.A.

The game promises to be one of the most exciting Shrine games in the seven-year history of the classic. Both squads are expected to take to the air in an attempt to win the big one.

Some 75,000 fans are expected to witness the contest when it gets under way at 8 p.m.

HOME RUN . . . Terry Neldon, Challenger center fielder, met the second pitch of the Girls' Softball game Tuesday evening and made a trip around the base pads. It was Terry's first homer and the first hit of a five-for-six show which Terry put on as the Challengers defeated the Teens, 35-0, in a one-sided contest.

Post Office Grabs Open League Crown

Following a forfeit win over the Union Carbide nine, the Torrance Post Office nine clinched the Industrial League championship and a berth in the City playoffs which begin on August 13. The Post Office is the second team to clinch a championship, the first was the Tappa Kegga nine who hold the Red League Title.

A loss by the Ryan Aeros, in second place in the Industrial League, to the Harvey Aluminum team eliminated the Aeros from contention for the Industrial League title. Harvey dealt out an 8-5 defeat to the Aeros as winner Clinton Smith scattered five hits. The Aeros made a trio of costly errors.

In action in the Red League the Water Department defeated the Torrance VFW, 10-7 behind the pitching of Ben Kidner. Loser for the VFW was Tex Earles who allowed ten hits, including fourth inning homers by Glen Mitchell and Fidel Herrera. Bill Johns also homered for the winners.

The Gardena VFW forfeited to the Tappa Keggas in the only other Red League game scheduled.

DESPITE a seventh inning comeback the Fire Department "A" nine defeated the Columbia ERA, 6-5. Ed Polston was credited with the win while the loss was charged to Angle Arce.

In the Blue League the Torrance Elks kept alive their title hopes by defeating the Inglewood Farms nine, 6-2. Elk hitters collected eight hits while winner Jim Williams rationed out five singles and a double to the Inglewood batsmen.

Don Riedel pitched a 4-0 shutout victory over the Vickers offering in an Open League game. In winning the game Riedel allowed but one hit and fanned nine batters.

THE TORRANCE Optimist clubbers remained on top of the Service League heap by defeating the South Bay Church of God, 4-1. Cliff Graybehl was credited with the win while the loss was delivered to Merle Macks.

A ten-hit attack led by Dale Harter and Jim Kruger gave the Torrance Lions an 8-5 win

Golf Lessons To Be Given At El Retiro

Golf lessons for youngsters will be offered at El Retiro Park Aug. 4 through 7, according to the Torrance Recreation Department.

Links instruction will be given by Bob Sachse at 2:30 p.m. for boys from 13 through 17 years old, 3:15 p.m. for boys from 9 through 12 years, 4 p.m. for girls from 9 through 17 years old.

Saturday morning sessions are also scheduled at the Seaside Golf Course.

as winner Red Hasson rationed out three hits.

The final game of the week saw the Boulevard Assembly post a 16-2 win over the Lutheran Angels. Don Sloan was the winner while the loss was charged to Jerry Griffen. Odd thing about that game . . . the Boulevard Assembly had but four hits!

over the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen. Pete Radesich pitched the victory while Tony Baratta picked up the tab for the loss.

The Torrance Kiwanis dealt out an 11-6 defeat to the Walteria Kiwanis with Jay Barrington picking up his third straight win. A home run by George Post led the 16-hit attack which defeated the Walteria team.

CLOSING OUT action for the week was a full slate in the Church League. The Rolling Hills Covenant defeated the First Assembly, 7-1 as Mel Nygen held the losers to just four hits. A trio of errors proved very costly for the First Assembly.

A hard-hitting Nazarene nine defeated the Hope Evangelical team, 13-4 as Nazarene batters touched loser Bob Jones for 14 hits. Chuck Little won the game and allowed just two hits during the game. The Evangel Temple handed the Seateria OddBalls a 10-2 loss

Second Fishoff In Yellowtail Derby Success

Second major fishoff of the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby not only proved a howling success in its own right, but heavy catches in it are serving as a decided stimulant to anglers bent upon qualifying in the third and final derby period now well under way.

Winner of the fishoff was Bill Dockter, Hawthorne, who bagged a 27 pound 13 ounce yellow from the Lo-An to take the keys and title certificate to a 1959 Ford Ranch Wagon. The same boat also produced the runner-up and the seventh place winner to make it a big day for Skipper Dick Gaydosh. The prize winners, in order, were: 27-13, Bill Dockter, Hawthorne; 26-3, Eugene Kelly, Los Angeles; 21-3, Hiro Hirabayashi, Los Angeles; 20-11, Kaz Kojo, Los Angeles; 20-4, Bill Nunes, Chula Vista; 19-11, Mrs. Lee Baun, Burbank; 19-10, Don Sudenga, Los Angeles; 19-9, O. A. Brown, West Los Angeles.

Other big fish taken on fish-off day, but not from boats actually participating in the joust for the period prizes, included a 25 pound 5 ounce bluefin tuna taken by Bobby Parsons, San Diego, and a 26-pound yellow caught by Jack B. Woods, Gardena.

Total derby day catch was: 431 yellows, 27 white sea bass, 1 bluefin tuna, 927 barracuda, 698 bonita, and 199 calico bass.
