Lucky Stores Name Three New Torrance Managers

Three new store managers were appointed to head the Torrance area grocery markets of Lucky Stores, company officials announced today.

DAYTON CARROLL, 38, of Lucky Store No. 11

Torrance, has taken charge of Lucky Store No. 11 at Sepulveda and Hawthorne Boulevards. He was transferred to his new post from Lomita. A native of Illinois, Carroll has been with the grocery chain for more than seven years. He is married and father of two boys aged seven and eleven years. He joined the Lucky organi-

Long Beach store before his transfer here. Walker is married and father of a five-year-old daughter. A native of South Dakota, he graduated from a Riverside Calif. high school and shortly after entered the U.S. Marine Corps to serve three years during World War II.

The third new manager appointed here is the youngest in age, company officials said, although he has been with the chain longer than the other two.

DON PRATT, 26-year-old native of Utah, started with

DON PRATT, 26-year-old native of Utah, started with Lucky more than 10 years ago as a box boy in Bell Gardens. He now heads Lucky Store No. 6 at Western and Lomita Avenues.

He is father of two sons, Douglas, 7, and Craig, 3, and Craig, 3, Lou, in Fullerton. He was transferred to his new store from a Long Beach company store. He is a Bell Gardens High School graduate.
