

Scout Trails

AT AIRPORT . . . Pictured here with United Airlines pilot Kenneth Breidenfeld are members of Girl Scout troop 2000 who recently visited the airport facility. The girls enjoyed a day at the airport and saw the interior of a DC-7 as well as control tower and other operations at the busy airport.

Troop 315

Golden Arrowhead Hike was accomplished by Boy Scouts of Troop 315, when they hiked a total of about 70 miles, beginning on July 12th and lasting Seven Days. Their parents held a picnic with the boys prior to the hike at Forest Home, near Redlands, the start of the hike.

Points on the itinerary were Dollar Lake, Jenks Lake, Barton Flats, Big Bear Lake, Little Green Valley, and ended at Big Horn Boy Scout Camp.

Adults who accompanied the boys were Homer Foster, Pete Corey, Leon Carpenter, and part way, Norm Rickard.

One boy dropped out from altitude and was replaced by another who was sick and couldn't leave with the boys at the start. Blisters were plentiful, but the morale was good. One night a thunderstorm caused three fires near the trail and they were held back by the Rangers.

Four ten mile practice hikes were necessary to get the boys in condition for this hike. Most of these boys earned hiking and camping badges. The boys carried all provisions and bedding on their backs, re-provisioning only once, at Big Bear Lake. The food was all dehydrated, but at Big Bear they caught enough fish to feed the group.

Girl Scouts Go On Tour

Girl Scout troop 2000 was recently escorted by United Airlines pilot Kenneth Breidenfeld on a tour of the International Airport. The girls were taken through a DC-7 plane and saw the cockpit, the seating arrangement and saw the general routine of the plane. They also toured the baggage conveyor, link trainer, control tower and different offices around the airport.

The girls received Junior Stewardess Wings, postal cards and balloons courtesy of United Airlines. Girls participating in the outing were: Kathy Cho-quette, Dianna Brannon, Debby Cote, Donna Flicker and Dianne Lippard.

Others were Carol Greninger, Andrea Tindley, Karen Trygstad, Nancy Nuttman, Susan Lillywhite, Pattie Franco, Karen Williams, Lenore Mormono, Vickie Townsend and Marty Lehr. Mrs. Marty Lehr and Mrs. Gloria Trygstad, leader and co-leader of the troop, accompanied the girls.

Coleman Named SIA Chairman

T. C. Coleman, president of Coleman Engineering Co., Inc., 3500 Torrance Blvd., has been appointed chairman of the Strategic Industries Assn's government relations committee, according to Harvey Riggs, president of S.I.A.

Two other top industry leaders have been named by Riggs to work as vice-chairmen under Coleman. They are E. C. Burkhardt, president of Genisco, Inc., and Robert R. Lent, director of marketing, Statham Instruments, Inc.

These specific area problems include renegotiation, cost principles, termination settlements, patent and proprietary rights, and weapons system concept, Coleman stated.

The immediate problem facing the government relations committee, he added, was to prepare and present S.I.A. views on military procurement at hearings of the procurement subcommittee of the senate committee on armed services.
