Lomita Church To Move Sunday School Classes

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will observe Promotion Day this Sunday. More than half of the Sunday School and Training Union will move up to new classes and unions.

The church grades the organizations on an age basis from the Nursery through Adults. More than 200 workers were elected for the church year that will begin on Oct. 1. Records reveal that the local church now has over 1200 enrolled in Sunday School and nearly 500 enrolled in their Training Union. Nearly 200 young people 24 years and below are enrolled in the church youth organizations that meet during the week. The church also has five choir groups.

This week is Preparation week. This special week is given to planning for the new church year. Goals are being set for every phase of the church life. The meeting end tonight. Recognition will be given to the workers in training during the year. They will be enrolled on the "Workers Training Honor Roll." Ted

SDA Church To Salute Area Youth

The church's responsibility for young people will be stressed Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church in a special "Pathfinder Day" program.

In announcing the event Pastor Goffar said, "Young people of the church are important to the expanding program of the denomination. Special recognition will be given to the part youth have to play in church activities."

The church's responsibility for the physical, mental and spiritual welfare of its youth will be discussed at the morning service, the pastor said. A call will be made for more church-member counselors and instructors for the church-sponsored "Pathfinder Clubs" and an offering will be taken to increase facilities of the club.

Elder Ted Carcich, associate youth secretary for the Southern California Conference, will be guest speaker

Johnston has been elected as Associate Superintendent of Training.

The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak at both morning services on the subject, "God Has Spoken." Mr. Wells stated, "The primary source of our knowledge about God is the Bible. No other one book has so proven its truths. No one has ever been led wrong by accepting its teachings. Any one who disregards it finds his problems grow more complex."

Renowned Choir To Sing Here Sunday Evening

The world renowned Negro choir will present a program of Negro spirituals at South Bay Baptist Church, 4595 Sharynne Lane, at 7 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27.

The choir was founded in 1937 by Rev. Glenn T. Settle. This outstanding musical group was heard on the CBS and Mutual Radio networks for 12 years. It was chosen by the government to serve the armed forces both in Europe and Asia. They have appeared in Town Hall, Carnegie Music Hall and Madison Square Garden, Hollywood Bowl and in many other famous halls throughout the world.

Their recordings have been given 4 Star ratings by Billboard Magazine, which is the highest ever accorded a religious group.

Their musical program will be followed by a message delivered by the pastor, Dr. J. C. Brumfield.

Mothers Schedule Meeting

Today at 9:30 a.m., the Mother's Council of the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., will hold its first meeting of the year. It will be a "Let's Get Acquainted" meeting and all mothers of the church are invited to attend. Nursery care is provided in the Fireside room.

The Mariners are sponsoring a Spaghetti Dinner tomorrow night, Friday, from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Sept. 27 through Oct. 4 is Christian Education Week. At the Sunday morning worship service at 11 Dr. R. Murray Jones will conduct a dedication service for all Sunday School teachers. His sermon for this Sunday will be "The Christian and His Church." The teachers, members of the Board of Christian Education and sponsors of the Fellowships will be further honored on Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, at a dinner. Dr. Gordon MacInnes, Associate Field Director for the Board of Christian Education in the area, will be guest speaker.

St. Andrew's Sets Teacher Dedication

A service of dedication for Sunday School teachers and workers will be held at the 9:15 a.m. family worship service at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, it was announced by the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of the parish.

Religious Education classes, under the direction of Jessica Jelf, began the fall season two weeks ago at a rally day, and registration for the various classes will be continued Sunday.

Father Percy continued his talks on the twin topics of roads and water during last Sunday's 9:15 and 11 a.m. services. He began a series of sermons on the subjects after returning from a 7000-mile vacation trip to Canada.

Calvary Church Slates Rally Day for Sunday

Rally Day has been scheduled for Sunday at the Calvary Baptist Sunday School, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Virginia McCurdy, general superintendent, announced yesterday. A special effort is being made to reach every pupil enrolled in order to have him in place for this occasion, the superintendent said. An official Rally Day goal of 500 has been set.

Percy said Sunday.

"While we distrust the symbol of the hammer and sickle because it represents a Godless rule, water is a symbol of good in the lives of Christians," he said.

He explained that water was the symbol of purity in the holy baptism service—referring to the baptism of several infants during the morning service.
