Commander State Legion In Local Visit

Legionnaires from all points in the South Bay area are expected to gather in Redondo Beach Tuesday evening, Oct. 12, for the big banquet to honor State Commander C. S.

Footo who will be paying his first visit to the Southland since his recent election.

Commander Millard F. Gunn, of South Bay Post 187, has issued a special invitation to all Legionnaires living in this section to attend the gathering. The affair will be held in the beautiful clubhouse of the Post situated at 412 So. Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

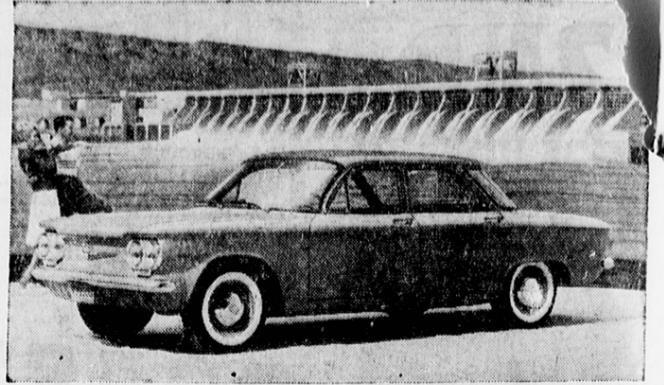

The dinner will be served starting at 7 p.m. and reservations can be made by calling the Post Adjutant, Fred Pelletier, at FRontier 2-6718.

SMALL PARTS

So intricate are the mechanisms of a modern military torpedo that some of the tiny parts could be hidden under the fingernail of an adult person.

CORVAIR
BY CHEVROLET

See and drive the remarkable new Corvaire . . . the car with the long, graceful lines and exciting curves. It's specifically designed the way a compact car should be, with a revolutionary, rear-mounted aluminum engine.

THE NEW CHEVROLET IS REALLY SOMETHING SPECIAL . . .

and we've got a special welcome mat out for you!

We've seen a lot of automobiles in our time, and we're convinced . . . this is the nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came!

Come see how Chevrolet has combined new elegance with economy. There's a smooth new ride, new room to relax in, and best of all, new engine economy. Actually, in the superlative 1960 Chevrolet you'll find everything you could possibly want in a car. We'd especially like you to see the new Chevy right away, so come on in and join our announcement celebration.

JAMBOREE TOKEN . . . William Sells, left, chairman of the Harbor District Jamboree committee, accepts the official Boy Scout Jamboree neckerchief from Dr. Richard Call, right, chairman of the steering committee. About 600 boys from the Los Angeles Area will attend Scouting's 5th national Jamboree next summer in Colorado Springs.

Operetta Auditions Scheduled

Betty Thomas Studio announces auditions are being held for the musical version of "Hansel and Gretel" Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, at 7 p.m., for youngsters of all ages.

Fay Newman, well-known vocalist in the South Bay area will direct the operetta to be performed in December.

Mrs. Newman has a rich musical background having had leading roles in opera, on T.V., and radio, and on the concert stage under her professional name of Fay Satton. She traveled thru the U.S. with "The Gilbert and Sullivan Co." thru Canada with "Let Freedom Ring" a musical comedy, and sang in hotels and resorts with a act known as "Satton and Power."

Since coming to Torrance, Mrs. Newman has been active musically. She is presently choir director at Temple Memorial in Redondo Beach, has been soloist at El Segundo Christian Science Church, appeared in several productions of Accent Theatre, Torrance, and recently sang at the Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church for the "Interfaith Tea" given by the South Bay Ministerial Assn.

Parents who are interested in having proper vocal instruction for their children whether for mere pleasure or with a career in mind, are invited to come next Tuesday evening at Betty Thomas Studios, Torrance Blvd. and Crenshaw. The auditions are free.

Boy Scouts Name Local Chairmen For National Jubilee Jamboree

District chairmen have been named for the Boy Scouts of America national Jamboree to be held next July 22-28 in Colorado Springs. More than 50,000 Scouts and Explorers from all parts of the nation will camp at the Jamboree, which is the highlight of the Scouts' 50th anniversary in America.

William Sells of 2335 Plaza del Amo, has accepted chairmanship of the Harbor District delegation. The local group will be part of a contingent of about 600 from the Los Angeles Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Boy Scouts who will be at least 12 years old by Jan. 1, 1960, and Explorers with at least three months tenure, are eligible to register for the Jamboree. Registrations are being accepted now by the Los Angeles Area Council office, DU 5-3461.

Jamboree troops will travel to Colorado Springs by direct plane flight or by sightseeing train.

Site of the national event is a 2000-acre ranch within sight of Pikes Peak, and very near the Air Force Academy. "Jamboree City" includes a 300 by 100-foot stage in front of a natural amphitheater where the grand opening on July 22 and the big show finale on July 28 will be held.

Between these events, Scouts and their leaders will meet and camp with others from all over the nation and several hundred Scouts from many countries of the free world, who will add an international touch.

Girl Scout Troop 580

Girls of Scout Troop 580, sponsored by the Howard Wood PTA, are anxiously looking forward to a year of interesting activities. A "fly-up" program and luncheon were held at the beginning of summer and the following girls left the Brownie Troop to become Intermediate Scouts:

Other Brownies attending the ceremonies but not "flying up" yet were Judy Engstrom and Pamela Hoy.

The luncheon also served to provide an opportunity to honor the leader, Mrs. Phyllis Morgan, and resigning co-leader, Mrs. Kay De Witt, together with Mrs. Bonnie Clark, incoming co-leader. Each was presented with a gift.

Although no regular meetings were held during the summer, the girls enjoyed a trip to Disneyland, and a swimming party at the home of Mrs. Morgan.

Boy Scout Troop 743

First order of business for the newly elected officers of the Harbor City Scout Mothers Auxiliary 743 will be a Halloween carnival, according to Mrs. George Murakami, newly elected president.

Mrs. Murakami is a charter member of the auxiliary and has been active in scouting for eight years. George Murakami, scout committee 743 awards chairman, has been responsible for the planting and care of the Youth Hall grounds. They have two sons, Ronnie and Jerry, who are members of Boy Scout Troop 743. Their oldest son, Mike, is a former member of the local troop and is now an Explorer Scout of Post 115X.

Other officers elected at the recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ray Miller were Mesdames John Rowles, vice president; Lawrence Barton, secretary; Donald Graham, publicity chairman, and Lloyd Hampton, sunshine chairman.

PLANS FOR A carnival to be held on Oct. 31 at the Charles F. King Youth Hall, 1409 W. 253rd St., Harbor City, were formulated. The festivities will begin at 11 a.m. and close at approximately 3 p.m. Climaxing the afternoon will be a costume parade open to children of all ages. Cash prizes will be awarded. Boy Scouts will build and operate the concessions and auxiliary mothers will operate food and hand-work booths.

The next auxiliary meeting will be held at 7 p.m., Oct. 21, at the home of Mrs. John Rowles, 2544 Belleport, with Mrs. George Murakami as co-hostess. A show mein dinner will precede the installation of officers. Members are asked to come in costume.

DEATH DECLINE

Death rate in the U.S. has declined about 46 per cent since 1900.

TO CALL DANCES . . . Dick Riggs will instruct a beginners square dance class at Stephen White Junior High, 220th and Figueroa. Registration for the classes will open Oct. 5 and remain open for three weeks. The classes will be held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. each Monday.
