

Las Vecinas Honors Provisionals

A PROVISIONAL WELCOME . . . When Las Vecinas opened its club year last Thursday at the Plush Horse twenty-three provisionals were introduced. Pictured, from left, Mmes. Rolling Ring, H. E. Evans, George Stern, Gene Whitehouse, Frank Carroll, R. W. Klock, president, Paul Coty, A. C. Werdes and J. D. Boxberger. Other new pro-

visionals, not pictured, are Mmes. Edward Davis, Richard Greenlaw, Joseph Jay, Marvin Kaufman, Calvin Kindschi, David Maloney, Humphrey Owen, David Owen, H. K. Packard, William C. Parker, Don L. Pennington, Jack Salling, Glenn A. Singer, Robert Suedmeyer, and Allen Van Huisen.

TORRANCE HERALD

SOCIAL WORLD

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 1, 1959

TORRANCE HERALD

Gourmet Club Begins Season

The Gourmet Club, composed of several local couples who enjoy good food and atmosphere, met for the first time this fall last Saturday evening.

Cocktails were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kimble on Darian Ave. The group then went to the Gourmet restaurant in Beverly Hills for dinner.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. James Kimble, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Kimble, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Crooker, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Paten and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Norman.

LOVE HATS? . . . THEN MAKE ONE

Are you a hat fancier? . . . if so you are invited to join the hat class being sponsored by the Adult Education Department at the WALTERIA Park. The class is again this year being taught by Mrs. Pamela Grubb.

All of fall's latest hat fashions in line and fabric are being created. The class meets every Tuesday afternoon from 1 until 4 p.m. and all women of the area are invited to attend.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"I'm Going to Pieces . . ."

Dear Ann Landers: I wouldn't take $500 for your column that appeared in today's paper. I never dreamed there was another woman in the world with my problem until I read the letter signed "Still White Bride".

My husband treated me like a sister on our honeymoon, too. I knew something was wrong but I thought he was just shy, and time would take care of everything.

After eight months of a kiss-marry marriage I broke down and told my mother. She was shocked but said so long as Freddie treated me nicely I shouldn't mention it to anyone and just make the best of it.

My nerves are shot. The other night I broke a cup and went into hysterics. Freddie came in. He told me I ought to see a doctor. I told him HE ought to see a doctor. He bawled me out for thinking sex was THAT important and said I was cheap.

Should I take my mother's advice? I'm sure she's afraid of a scandal that might harm the family name. In the meantime, I'm going to pieces. Please help me. — SISTER-WIFE

Dear Sister - Wife: Yours is no marriage. Freddie could hire a housekeeper and cook to do what you are doing. Insist that he accompany you to a marriage counselor and verbalize the problem. If he refuses see your clergyman.

Dear Ann: I'm 14 and must have a screw loose in my head. My boy friend is the most popular kid in school. He's smart, athletic and handsome. Yet there are times when I get sick of him and want to throw him out of the house. Then I get so lonesome for him I could just die.

Last week I hated him. Today I love him like crazy. There isn't a girl in our crowd who wouldn't grab him for her steady if she had the chance. The thought of anyone getting him away from me makes me almost sick.

Am I a mental case or what? My grandfather died at 92 and toward the end he was playing with dolls. I'm worried about my sanity. — DIZZY LIZZY

Dear Lizzy: The fluctuations you describe are normal for a 14-year-old girl. But you're too young to concentrate on any one boy — no matter how dreamy. You should be distributing your enthusiasm among many. It's much healthier to play the field and encourage the dreamboat to do the same.

You'll appreciate one another more and there will be fewer emotional peaks and valleys.

Dear Ann: What's wrong with a 47-year-old man who writes letters to teenage girls and pretends he's their age? (Continued on Page 38)

MRS. GEORGE M. ABRAMOVIC . . . On Eastern Honeymoon (Brussa Photo)

Jofran Rubeo Is Mrs. Abramovic

Miss Jofran Mary Rubeo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Rubeo, Sr., 2508 Sierra St., was a lovely bride as she walked down the aisle of Nativity Catholic Church last Saturday at high noon for her wedding to George Marco Abramovic. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Abramovic of Redondo.

As the wedding guests assembled, Mrs. Neil McConologue played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Sherwood Tiernan, who sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of off-white bridal satin which she had designed and was made by Mrs. Fred Cooper. Applied Alencon lace ornamented the bodice and formed the Sabrina neckline which was sprinkled with pearls. The flowing satin skirt (Continued on Page 38)

Mothers Club Event

'Skyway Holiday' Parade on Oct. 6

Modern day jet air travel is the incentive for the "Skyway Holiday" fashion show to be staged by the Serra Mothers club on Oct. 6 at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium, 14830 S. Van Ness Ave., Gardena. Mrs. Giles Stadler is serving as general chairman.

Carrying out the theme of world travel, fashions will be shown by two Gardena shops. Models will be members of the Mothers club.

Entertainment will be furnished by Marie Therese Robert, soloist, of radio, TV and stage.

Sophomore mothers will serve as hostesses, attired in costumes of various countries including Japanese kimonos flown here from Japan.

Refreshments will be served during a social hour preceding the show. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Dick Grace. Each ticket will be exchanged at the door for a "flight check" for the 100 door prizes. Souvenirs donated by four leading airlines will be distributed.

Another highlight of the evening will be the "Parade of Past Presidents" designed to stimulate alumni interest in the school, which this year is celebrating its tenth anniversary.

Past presidents are Mmes. Arthur Frizzen, Lee Diamond, Don Cowden, Giles Stadler, Joseph Condon, Randall Henley, William Gallimore, and Clint Wiley.

Farewell for Mrs. Stouffer

The home of Mrs. Ralph Robertson, 22111 S. Harvard Blvd., was the setting on Wednesday evening for a farewell party honoring Mrs. Howard Stouffer, who with her family is moving to New Jersey.

A dinner was served in the new rumpus room at the Robertson home after which bridge games were Mrs. Keith Moore and Mrs. George Virgin.

The group presented Mrs. Stouffer with a farewell gift.

Attending were Mmes. Gladys Smith, Mary Virgin, Ruth Swarts, Ruth Moore, Ellen Stouffer, Marge White, Boots Potter, Phoebe Morrow, Faith Montgomery, Molly Van Derborgh, Bertha Weston, Phyllis Luzan, Dorris Conner, Flo Young and Midge Perry.

MISS LUCILLE TUCK . . . Sets Date

Tuck-Helton Marriage Set Nov. 21

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Tuck, 1423 W. 220th St., are announcing the wedding plans of their daughter, Lucille Marie, and Maurice Charles Helton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Helton of Downey. The wedding will be solemnized Nov. 21 at the Torrance Baptist church.

The bride-elect was graduated from Narbonne High school in January, 1959.

Her fiancé is a graduate of the Compton High school and is now employed by an electric company in Long Beach.

Miss Tuck has chosen Miss Penny Butler as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Misses Barbara Crovella, Sue Chapman, Pat Wilson and Rose Germaine.

Miss Lois Tuck will serve as her sister's flower girl.

Employees to Meet Tonight

Classified employees of the Torrance Unified School District are invited to the regular monthly meeting of the California School Employees Assn. to be held tonight, Oct. 1 in the conference room of the Education Materials Building at 7:30 p.m.

TRAVEL FASHIONS . . . In their "Skyway Holiday" fashion show to be held Oct. 6 at 7 p.m. by the Serra Mothers club, members will model the lavish new fall fashions. In a rehearsal for the show, Mrs. R. L. Moffitt models an ensemble as two other models, Mrs. Earl Woodley and Mrs. Donald Krietsch look on. Mrs. Giles Stadler is general chairman.

Backlunds Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Backlund entertained a large number of guests at cocktails and a buffet last Saturday evening at their home, 6456 Via de Anzar, Miraleste.

Enjoying the delightful affair were Drs. and Mmes. Burton Easley, Gerald Eastham, Philip Halloran, W. E. Grubbs, Paul Winn, John Beeman and Alden Smith.

Others were Messrs. and Mmes. George Stephens, Dean Virden, C. A. Woodcock, Von Bergon, Donald Hitchcock, Dean Sears, John Backlund, Walter Levy, R. J. Triplitt, C. M. Blakley, Parke Montague, Edward Schwartz, Leonard Backlund, Carl Backlund, Lee McCoy, R. J. Morton, Rod Norris, Robert Clayton, Earl Clayton, W. R. Patterson.

Also, Messrs. and Mmes. R. D. Bolan, Jack Brooks, C. T. Rippey, Jr., B. J. Scotton, H. C. Barrington, Merle Richardson, Lester King and Marshall Chamberlain.

Other guests were Mrs. Paul Loranger, Mrs. Douglas Lowrey and Miss Alicia Loranger.

In Palm Springs

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Heinlein and Ann Louise and David spent last weekend in Palm Springs at the Golden Palm Villa owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson, formerly of Torrance.

Piano Pupils In Recital

Mrs. Margaret Power, local piano teacher, presented a number of her students in recital last Friday evening at the Calle Mayor school auditorium.

Students participating were Vicki Giff, Eva Welge, Linda Alberio, Karol Klibbe, Richard and Randy Power, Diane Marshall, Anita Eddy, Linda Wilson, Carmen Alberio, Pamela Wallace, Kirk Moore.

Others were Patricia Eddy, Elizabeth Welge, Diane McAllister, Rita Gemmill, Jeanette Jordan, Jennifer Anderson, Marcia Reich, Jean Christian and Carolyn Pond.

PLAN CAMPAIGN . . . A fund campaign for equipment and furnishings for the Little Company of Mary hospital will begin immediately. Plans were made at a meeting called by Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer, director of health and hospitals, Archdiocese of Los Angeles, last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas F. McNeil. Chairmen for the drive were named and Mrs. McNeil was appointed general chairman. Pictured are from left, Msgr. O'Dwyer, Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. Murray Rudnick, Mrs. Frang Pagac and Mother Lucy.

FABULOUS FASHIONS . . . Las Colinas Garden Club will stage a benefit fashion show on Oct. 5 at the Polynesian restaurant featuring fall's smartest fashions from a Hollywood Riviera Shop. Looking over an array of new fall hats are from left, standing, Mmes. William Leonhard and Ray Hogan; seated Mrs. Leo Levanas and Wayne Allen. Proceeds will be used for development of the Los Arboles Park and to aid the Harlan Schumacher School for Handicapped Children.