Yolanda Di Meglio Becomes Bride of Charles Morriss

St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in Lomita was beautifully decorated for the wedding of Miss Yolanda Di Meglio and Charles S. Morriss which took place at an 11 o'clock nuptial mass on Saturday, Sept. 26. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Di Meglio, 2057 W. 255th, Lomita.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Morriss, 26117 Belle Porte, Harbor City.

Mr. Di Meglio escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of white peau de soie silk taffeta. Details of the gown were a V-shaped neckline of folded taffeta. The floor length bouffant skirt of taffeta and lace was over a hoop. The skirt was embroidered in silver threads and sequins and was appliqued with pleated tulle. A large bow provided a bustle effect. A pearl sequin crown held her long veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Miss Mary Jane De Meglio was the maid of honor wearing a fluorescent gold taffeta gown and carrying gold carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Ann Cassidy, Helen Cassidy, Brenda Machado, Lydia De Leon and Judy Marsh. All five bridesmaids wore fluorescent green taffeta and carried green carnations.

Rose Marie DeMonte as flower girl wore a complete bridal raiment, an identical replica of the bride. The rings were carried by Joseph Mello.

Melvin Morriss stood as best man and ushers were Jerry Jack, Mike McLain, Jack Mello, John Di Meglio and Chuck Riggs.

Mrs. Mary Buterfield, at the organ, played a background of nuptial music and accompanied Connie Smith who sang "On This Day" and "Ave Maria."

A reception was held for the 350 wedding guests at the San Pedro YWCA. The food was prepared by the bride's father. A four-tiered wedding cake encircled by lilies of the valley decorated the bride's table.

The newlyweds left for undisclosed honeymoon. Their new address is 26113 Belle Porte St., Harbor City.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Narbonne High school.

Hostesses at NDGW Affair

Three Torrance women, active in affairs of the Beverly Hills Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will assist as hostesses at a membership tea the Parlor is giving from 2 to 4 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 11. Setting for the tea will be the home of Mrs. Francis W. Sullivan, 2400 Shenandoah St., Los Angeles.

The local women are Mrs. Roger W. Peltz, 4310 Chaltann, the Parlor's third vice-president, and Mrs. Helen May Sweetman and her daughter, Miss Carla Sweetman, 3761 W. 177th St.
