... Takes Fair Prizes

Swedish Linipa Bread

1 1/2 c. warm water 1/4 c. molasses
2 pkgs. dry yeast 1/3 c. sugar
2 1/2 c. rye flour 1 tsp. salt
2 tsp. shortening Grated orange rind
2 to 3 c. flour (1 or 2 oranges)

In mixing bowl, stir warm water and dry yeast. Stir in molasses, sugar, salt, orange rind. Mix in rye flour, sifted, and shortening. Work with spoon until smooth. Then with hands, mix in sifted flour.

Turn onto lightly floured board. Knead about 10 minutes and let rise in a greased bowl until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours.) Punch down and let rise again about 45 minutes. While rising, keep covered with damp cloth. Knead down and divide dough into two parts. Place on opposite corners of greased cookie sheet. Let rise about an hour. Bake 375 degrees for 35 minutes.

Orange Frosted Cinnamon Rolls

1/2 c. warm water 2 tsp. salt
2 pkgs. dry yeast 2 eggs
1 1/2 c. warm milk 1/2 c. shortening
1/2 c. sugar 7 cups sifted flour

Mix water, yeast, milk, sugar, salt, eggs, shortening and one-half of flour. Mix until smooth. Add enough remaining flour to handle easily; turn onto lightly floured board, knead until smooth (about 5 minutes). Round up in greased bowl, greased side up. Cover with damp cloth. Let rise twice, first time until double about 1 1/2 hours. Knead again and let rise about 30 minutes.

Divide dough for desired rolls and coffee cakes. Roll dough into 15x9 oblong shape. Spread with 2 tsp. melted butter and sprinkle with 1/2 c. sugar and 2 tsp. cinnamon.

Roll up tightly, beginning at wide side. Seal roll by pinching edges of roll together. Stretch roll slightly, then cut into 1-inch slices. Place on greased pan and before rising frost with Quick Creamy Orange Frosting.

Orange Frosting

3 tsp. butter 2 tsp. orange juice
1 tsp. orange rind 1 1/2 c. powdered sugar
(grated)

Use one-half of frosting before baking. Let rise until double in bulk 35-40 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for 30 minutes. Cover with remaining frosting while warm.

Sepulveda

Sepulveda's first PTA meeting Sept. 24 was a get-acquainted affair for parents and teachers. Robert Dexter, principal, introduced the faculty. Mrs. Hubert Bailey, PTA president, introduced her board for the coming year.

Mrs. Robert Ringe, membership chairman, extended an invitation to all parents to join the PTA. A membership drive is planned for Oct. 5 to Oct. 9. The room having the largest percentage of membership will win an award.

A skit written by Mrs. John Stokley was presented. It told of ways to encourage friends and neighbors to join the PTA. The cast was: Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mrs. Robert Whitney, and Mrs. Don Creamer. Mrs. Samuel Kaplan, budget-finance chairman, presented the budget for the coming year, which was adopted by the association. There will be a rags and paper drive Oct. 20. Magazines are

"Getting to Know You" was the theme of the Halldale Ave. PTA's first meeting of the school year the afternoon of Sept. 22, in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Ruth Adams, Halldale music teacher, showed 35mm slides of her trip to 9 countries in Europe.

Halldale's membership drive will start Oct. 5. Mes. M. S. Condon, William Wilson, H. C. Clark, Richard Hobbs, and L. B. White were accompanied by Mrs. Howard Black on the piano to a high spirited tune with lyrics written by Mrs. Donald Hartman.

being accepted. Anyone desiring to help may call Mrs. Richard Gibson.

Mrs. Robert Whitney, first vice president, announced that the Oct. 15 meeting will be a film on civilian defense. An informal coffee hour concluded the evening.

We picked a winner for our Guest Cook in Today's Favorite recipe columns. She is Mrs. William Weber, 23002 Kathryn Ave., who walked off with honors in culinary arts at the Los Angeles County Fair recently.

Mrs. Weber, of Norwegian descent, and her husband, Bill, moved to Torrance in January, 1957, from Lynnwood, Wash. They have two children, Nancy, 11, and Jimmy, 7.

They are a happy family and singing as a favorite pastime. The Webers are members of the choir at the First Methodist Church in Redondo and Nancy sings in the junior choir.

Mrs. Weber is a member of the Sweet Adelines chorus and also sings with the Surf Chords quartet.

Today's guest likes flowers and gardening, dancing, swimming, and bowling. She makes most of the family clothes, makes curtains, bedspreads, covers for davenport and chairs. She is also leader of 18 Intermediate Girl Scouts.

Since cooking is her favorite hobby, Mrs. Weber bakes all her bread, cakes, pies and cookies.

At the County Fair, she won a first with her Swedish Linipa Bread and a fourth place with her Orange Frosted Cinnamon Rolls. The recipes for which she is sharing with Torrance Herald readers today.

RN Camps to Meet Here On Oct. 20

South Bay Camp of Royal Neighbors have open the new campaign meeting by dividing the camps into two parts, the Mars and the Jupiter Space Age camps.

Mrs. Mary Hageman of San Pedro will head the Jupiter list and she will have the San Pedro, Redondo Beach and Gardena camps under her jurisdiction for the coming year. The Mars group will be headed by Mrs. Mary Baker and she will have Torrance, Inglewood, Culver City and Ocean Park camps with her.

The object of the Space Age to the Moon era will be the furthering of the insurance program. The captain having sold the most insurance and prompted the most Good Will for her camps will be honored with a special dinner and prize from the losing sides.

The first campaign meeting of the new year will be held in Torrance on Tuesday, Oct. 20, in the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Meeting will be called to order by the Oracle, Mrs. Mary Chiara, at 8 p.m.

The program chairman will be Mrs. Belya Brase and this will include some ideas or skits from the various camps.

The captains, Mrs. Hageman and Mrs. Baker will then explain to the members just what they expect each one to do in this campaign meeting.

The District Deputy, Mrs. Betty Gaston, will also be present and give a talk along the line of The Space Age and the trip to the moon and how it will concern the insurance program.

Visit Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stepp of Redding, formerly of Torrance, left for their home Thursday morning following a weeks visit with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Klaesges and family, 2713 Monterey.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

Wood

"Sidewalks of New York" and "Daisy Bell" proved to be good songs for blending, as parents and faculty of Howard Wood PTA enjoyed community singing at the first association meeting, held in the school cafeteria, Sept. 18.

Mrs. Cecil Davey, Mothersingers chairman, and James Armstrong, 8th grade teacher, led the group accompanied by Mrs. Neil Short, music chairman.

The Flag Salute, led by Cub Scout Troop 211-C, Den 5, preceded the meeting. Boys participating were: Bobby Braddock, Glenn Muranaka, Ricky Gohlighly, Joe Mike Hamby, Dean Holmes, David Huffman, and Johnny Roberts.

Mrs. Hiro Muranaka, president, welcomed guests and held a business meeting at which time reports were given by the chairmen.

Program chairman, Mrs. C. W. Strahm, introduced Don Mullaney, principal, who spoke briefly to the Association and presented faculty members.

Refreshment committee Mes. Jay Nielsen, Thomas Denman, and Paul Braswell served cake and coffee at the close of the meeting.

Walteria

Walteria PTA held its first general meeting and social gathering in the school cafeteria, which had been transformed into a tropical isle.

Over six hundred were served amid tropical island decor. A program of music including Junior Kalima and David Chung who sang and played musical instruments and Pamela Tai, Carol Moore and Debbie Landis, dancers, was enjoyed.

Mr. Jim Birmingham as president of the PTA welcomed parents to the first general meeting. Introductions during the evening included the new principal, Victor Kilburn, and a number of the teaching staff.

Boy Scout Troop 240 led the Flag salute. Business for the evening included the approval of the recommended budget, and also approval for support of the milk fund and scholarship fund. Reports included those of Mrs. Henry Fink Jr., treasurer, and chairmen. Mrs. Lauren LaFontaine, Carnival chairman, reported that flyers would be sent home for donations and volunteers for help. The carnival will be on the afternoon of Oct. 31.

Membership Chairman Mrs. Lloyd Crowthers reported on the membership drive now being held. Magazine chairman Mrs. Lydia Oakes, discussed the PTA magazine. Attendance prize was won by Mrs. Knighten's class.

Perry

Plans are under way for the big Perry PTA Fall Carnival Oct. 24, 12 to 4 p.m. A costume parade, games and food booths have been planned. The Boy Scouts will have cotton candy, candied apples and popcorn for sale and also will set up a "white elephant booth." A specialty will be "Perry Burgers."

Also on sale will be hot dogs, pie, coffee and soft drinks. Approximately 8 game booths will offer a varied amount of entertainment for all ages. The public is invited.

Fleming

Fleming Junior High PTA will meet Oct. 27 at 1:30 p.m. The physical education department will present a demonstration of its curriculum as the program.

After the meeting in the school auditorium, there will be a get-acquainted tea and classroom visitation. Hostesses will be Harbor City-Lomita area.

Board members will meet at 9:30 a.m. on Oct. 23 in the Little Theatre.

The PTA has reached 80 percent in its membership drive, according to Mrs. Lewis Gandsey, membership chairman.

Narbonne

"Together We Prepare for Tomorrow" is the program theme for the first meeting of the Narbonne PTA Tuesday, Oct. 20, 7:30 p.m. in the school multipurpose room.

The following topics are to be presented by faculty members: "Scholarships," Miss Louellen Chase; "counseling," Mrs. Helen Berger; "Grades," Mrs. Delores Bright; and "College or a Job?" Mr. William Kepley, curriculum consultant to the Los Angeles Junior Colleges.

All parents are invited. Mrs. A. A. Venable, membership chairman, reports 1839 parents and teachers joined Narbonne PTA the first week of the membership drive, Oct. 5-9.

Crenshaw

Crenshaw Elementary PTA will present Dr. Maurine W. Sellstrom as the featured speaker at the first regular business meeting on Wednesday evening, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Sellstrom's topic will be "The Ways We Fail Our Children." A question and answer period will follow the lecture. The speaker founded the Southwest Counseling Service Inc. in 1942 to promote a better understanding of the human relationship in everyday family life.

Hillside

"We Expand Our Circles of Cooperation—Working In Harmony," is the theme for the year of Hillside PTA. The title of well known songs will announce the programs each month as planned by Mrs. Tony Santoella, first vice president.

"Getting To Know You," was presented last Thursday evening, Oct. 8, in the Cafeteria. A skit introducing the Board Members to the parents and teachers was given under the direction of Mrs. Fred Fields. Refreshments were served by the eighth grade Room Mothers.

Tickets for the Oct. 29 Fashion Show featuring home sewn clothing, went on sale. Mrs. Beryl Gutridge, chairman, said sales would be limited, and tickets may be reserved by calling Mrs. John Derry.

Newton

Newton PTA board members met at the home of Mrs. D. C. Robbins, president, to meet the new principal, Mr. C. Richard Wallner, and to plan the annual teachers' luncheon which was served on Sept. 9 at the home of Mrs. William Forrest, 4515 Highgrove Ave.

Mrs. Warren Post, program chairman, presented an outline of the future association meetings. The theme for this year is "Avenues of Understanding." All meetings will be held on the second Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria except the Christmas program and the May Day festival, which will be daytime affairs.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mrs. H. M. Christopher, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. M. Austin, hospitality; Mrs. Henry Moeck, legislation and international relations; Mrs. W. B. Thompson, Newsette; Mrs. L. L. Bonnette, parent education; Mrs. G. D. Page, telephone; and Mrs. Nathan Goode, health.

The next board meeting will be held on Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. William LaMore, 4721 Greenmeadows Ave.

Seaside

Executive Board of the Seaside PTA held its August meeting at the home of Mrs. Clyde Miller on Monday.

Mr. James Miller, president, requested committees that had met during the period since the June meeting to report on their organization and summer activities. Mrs. Jack Hensley, Budget and Finance Committee chairman, reported that her committee had met and drafted a tentative budget for the coming school year.

Mr. Glenn Mosman, program chairman, revealed that "Together We Build" has been selected as the theme for the year with monthly topics like "Friendliness" for September, "Ties" for October, "Look and Listen" for November, "Christmas" for December, "Attitude" for January, "Service" for February, "Community" for March, "Education" for April, and "The Future" for May.

The goal of the unit for the next nine months will be to develop a program of activities to improve the physical fitness of the youngsters. This is to coincide with President Eisenhower's recommendations and a policy to be announced by the Torrance Unified School District.

With each step... this young man is preparing for a successful future!

gaining business experience

As a newspaperboy, he runs his own profitable business. He buys at wholesale . . . sells at retail . . . and regularly banks part of his profits.

learning salesmanship

In competition with other boys, he is finding out how to sell his newspaper and himself—and thus, sign up more subscribers and increase his profits.

building self-confidence

Daily contacts with his customers help him gain self-assurance. He knows how to talk to adults—and how to work with boys his own age.

Many of today's top executives and civic leaders got their first business training on a newspaper route.

This young businessman is supplementing his classroom lessons. On the spot "job training" is preparing him for the future.

When he applies for his first full-time job, he'll have an advantage over boys who somehow missed this opportunity.
