

PAUL L. DUKE
... district governor

Rotary District Official Meets With Local Club

Rotarians in Torrance will meet with their district governor Aug. 17 at the weekly meeting at the Palms Restaurant. Governor Paul L. Duke, of Palos Verdes, will set forth aims and policy of the district during a talk scheduled for the luncheon meeting.

The governor will meet with officers and directors of the club on Aug. 16 to review the years plans and progress.

The governor's district, 528, includes some 30 clubs in the southwest portion of the county.

Duke is past president of the Wilshire Rotary Club, which he joined in 1938. He served as secretary and director as well as the 1946-47 presidency.

On the district level, the governor has served as assembly manager, special business meeting manager, secretary of the nominating committee, ports committee, chairman of community service, and secretary of the district conference.

President of the Royal Shade Shop, Inc., he lives with his wife at 1000 Via Nogales, Palos Verdes Estates. They have one son, C. Duane Duke, who is secretary of the Wilshire Club.

Youth Leader is Guest Speaker

The Rev. Earla McKinley, nationally known youth speaker, will be the guest speaker at the Foursquare Church, 254th St. and Belle Porte, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. McKinley has just arrived on the West Coast from her headquarters in the east and will be in the Harbor area only a short time.

The Church young peoples' group will provide special music for the service.
